TERMS OF THE DAILY DEMOCRAT TO THE COUNTRY.

ONE YEAR. ONE MONTHS

Selice to Mail Subscribers and acribers are supplied with a notice of the date their subscription will expire ten days in advance of the time; and again with a second notice trifles as that on the day the last copy paid for is sent. This Do you think counts, and to renew in time not to miss an issue the End of It.

Among the beautiful illusions of youth and many and many a time we have tried to of fat and a streak of lean. steal near enough to accomplish the feat. believe that the above plan is perfect-cum

The other belief, and one upon which we derful achievements since-and that is a and get it. heavy wager-is, that at the end of the "triumphal arch that spans the sky, when storms prepare to part," there is a veritable pot of gold. Not gold in the rough or ore; not gold by the quartz, as a miner would earthen jar, just such as Ali Baba found in out at the elbow, are to be very much worn the den of the robbers, and for the taking by gentlemen between the ages of nineof which his unlucky brother, Cassim, was cut up like meat.

Whatever lingering doubts might have salt, on this one there was no doubt.

It was plain and reasonable that all that liquid auriferous stream in the bow of public gaze. promise there turned down, and pouring upon the earth, should be caught in some earthen or other vessel. The only doubt in our mind was, whether the other colors applications of grease, gin cocktails and did not drop applies and rubies into the like, and are, in most instances, many did not drop sapphires and rubies into the same precious vessel.

We suppose we need not mention here as no one has seen us with superfluous amount of ciinking mint-dropt, or adorned in glittering jewelry, that we never were quite able to reach that ever near but ever far vase of wealth. Nor need we say that we often plunged reckiessly into mud and mire, in pursuit of that fleeting treasure. not all follow it through life in the shape of of scorn at every man who does. the "almighty doilar," and is it not need also temples and streets of that New Jerusalem to which we all aspire? We did push after it through brier and brush, and have been doing so in a passably honest way ever

We, however, are not alone in this chase for precious metals. It was the incentive tion of Independence: that populated California and Australia. A short time since, any one who picked up a paper would see that the gold was crop ping out so thick in Idaho, that it was used to make tools instead of the bassr metals. Before that Washoe, so richly and humoronsly described by J. Ross Brown, was proved to be nothing but a lot of heavily silver plated rocks.

We disdain to mention Pike's Peak which every one knows is a pyramid of solid gold and silver, with a base of twenty miles synare and ten miles in hight.

These are twice-told tales. Everybody who reads knows of them. The little children at school are as familiar with them as the other miners in the diggin's.

What we really have to call attention to is the discovery of another glorious golden parks, public equares, broad streets, and land that has been lying hidden in the dim obscurity of the far West, under the protection of Indians, frontiers-men and griz-

If, after all this introduction, we should confess with a blush that the State contains only silver, we hope the reader will not ance, and how it came there we cannot the young one was white! pretend to say, unless, being driven out by the "greenbacks," it took refuge in those golitary steeps and passes only to be chased again and caught.

The mines are near Austin, on the overland stage and telegraph road, some eight miles from Reese river. This city has attained the advanced age of six months and is now trotting alone, in a very American way, with a population of five thousand. was made by an employe of the Pony Express, but he was unable to work them from the Oregon Mill and Mining Company, who have put up a quartz crush ng machine and mash out five hundred or six hundred dollars from every tun. They have the pear. "Oregon Ledge" and the "North Star to it afterwards. Such is the story of the Ledge," for every claimant must name his ravens. property. How this title or right is acquired is very simple indeed. As coon as cons in the location of claims and the quantity each claim may contain.

When a claim or ledge is discovered the lucky finder simply sticks up a written notice of his discovery, but as there are dismy; but, on the marriage-day, feeling too date, &c., to prevent mistakes. The right once established, woe to the wretch who tries to overthrow it. He is about as safe as he would be astraddle of a plank riding over Niagara.

out if a person does not work his claim. So which the cause of her secret grief was dismany days in the month he is required to closed.

quartz rock, and is sometimes called a "lode" or "voin." Some claims contain metal enough on the surface to pay expenses, and some, we suppose, not metal enough if you were to dig down to the fireworks, or clear through to Europe or Chius.

The Reese river district is claimed to be discovered to the surface to be supposed to the first half of 1864, and for the first half of 1864, and for the first half of 1864.

The Reese river district is claimed to be discovered to the surface to pay expenses, and some time getes of Malaga and detained for a ransom of $8000; a notary murdered by the Parisian people than they get credit for, and that the proprietors of many with a strange feeling of bewilderment that the latting function of the cheap restaurants—in which dinner of the cheap restaurants—in which dinner with every, two dishse of meat, a dessert, in 1860, £102,684; in 1861, in 1861, in 1861, £142,402; in 1862, £179,1283; and in 1863, £181,036; and for the first half of 1864, £181,791.

the richest ever discovered. In the same vicinity are Simpson Park, Bunker Hill, smoky Valley, Santa Fe, Big Creek, Washington and Sau Antonia districts-all very

This happy land is located between Ca fifornia and Utah, and is bounded on the Where my heart, in its fond reminis North by Oregon. The Pony Express rtine right through, and you can peck up your O, who does not envy the days of his youth runk and start to-morrow and be sure of To and that his life is so rude and ancouth a safe trip, barrin' the rebels and the Indians, the grizzlies, starvetion and such

Do you think all the golden story has been told yet? What a mistake! If you are too refined for refined silver, all you have to do is to step over into Montana and The Rainbow with the Pot of Gold at fail four pockets with the yellow, glittering

Bannock City, which is another of those there were two which perplexed our child- very fast little Western cities, is built upon ish mind. One was that, to catch a bird, it silver mines, mixed in a most agreeable way was only necessary to throw salt on its tail, with gold-like a nice roast, with a streak

We would like to tell more about this, Somehow we always failed, but that child is a but really the remembrance of thet nufermonster who does not faithfully and fully tunate pot of gold that we never could get, And I ask of myself and the cot all alone, omes up too vividly. Our feelings are too many for us. We have no doubt it lies buried in those ledges of which we have were and are willing to stoke all the fairy written, but in a burst of generosity we dreams of boyhood, together with our won- offer ail our chere to any one who will go

WINTER FARMONS FOR GENTLEMEN.-A Philadelphie cotemporary gives the style of gentlemen's winter fashions in that city, as follows:

During the coming winter, old clothes teen and seventy. Pockets are to be dis-pensed with entirely.

"Patches" are now worn among the elite, and are considered very beautiful. A new remained in our youthful minds on the ed breeches" are graduafly becoming popu "previous question," from an inability to see the affinity between birds' tails and The peculiarities of this sort of pantaleons are not numerous, there being nothing dis tinctive about them except a patch on the disc or that part most rarely exposed to the

A very pretty vest has just made its appearance, and is destined to become a universal favorite. It is called "the spotted The spots are formed by accidental years old.

The most talked of style of boot, now known to fashion-loving gentlemen, is one called "down at the heel and out at the toe." It is worn by many of our most conspicaons citizens. Of the other fashions it is hardly necessary to speak. At a meeting of the "Young Men's Old Overcoat Club," held last night, it was unenimously Resolved, That during the next six months we will purchass no new overcoats, and Why should we be ashamed of it? Do we that we will point the cold unmoving finger Resolved, That the Young Men's Old Overcoat Club withhold its patronage and friendto figure in sacred writings by golden ship from all gentlemen who include in temples and streets of that New Jerusalem new suits while the present high prices

RIGHTS OF AMERICANS .- A wag has made the following summary of what he calls the inalienable rights of Americans, and which are not enumerated in the Declara

To know any trade or businese without apprenticeship or experiencs. To marry without regard to fortune, state of health, position, or opinion of parents.

To have a wife and children dependent on contingencies of business, and, in cass of sudden death, to leave them wholly unpro-

To teach our children no good trade, hop ing they will have, when grown up, wit ough to live on the judustry of other peo-To enjoy the general sympathy when made bankrupt by reckless speculation.

To cheat the Government if possible. To hold offices without being competent t ischarge their duties. To build houses with nine and six-inch walle, go to the funeral of tenants, firemen and others killed by the fall, weeping over the "mysterious dispensation of Provi-

To build our cities and towns without any ventilated blocks, and call pestilence a visitation of God.

A Moonish Legend .- The Moors tell a father, inspecting his own black plumage; some lnnch. feel disappointed. It is there in abund- not a white feather was to be seen, and yst

He then looked at the mother, not a white feather visible about her either; so he requested an explanation from her. "I do not understand it," she said, "but in a little while doubtless the right ones will "I will fly away from here," he cried,

'away," and he did fly away.

The mother remained with the little one. The father was as angry as he could be, but began to think:

"Perhaps I have not seen aright; I will The discovery of the mines (not the city) go back and look again!" and he went back; entirely to your wife. he found that the little one had become gray. "So, then, it is not white?" he exgray. ed; "but still it cannot be called black; want of means. They are now worked by neither its mother nor I are of this color."

"Only give time, and the right will ap-

A WARNING TO COQUETTES .- In Mrs. Bray's letters on Devonshire, an interestthe precious metals are discovered the ing work, published some years ago in Engminers assemble and establish a mining land, an anecdote is preserved of a lady in district, prescribe rules to govern all per-fit of caprice, behaved so toward a suitor As they were walking whom in her heart che loved, that, believ- her little compenion close up to her, saying himself utterly discarded, he joined the lug honest men even in gold and silver mines, surely that her heart was broken, she wrote said. a letter expressing that conviction and reit is best to hide a written notice, with lating the causes, and requesting that she beneath a black seal:

"When I am dead and cold, Then let the truth be told." But the same inflexible justice is followed died, and on her death-bed pointed to the cab-

The silver oro is found in ledges of quartz rock, and is sometimes called a "lode" or "voin." Some claims contain

[For this Louisville Sunday Democrat.] MY CHILDHOOD HOME.

BY BURCHAM.

O, give me a home in the shady retreats, Where my childhood went fleetingly by-To the tune of an envious sigh. When from childhood be's changed to a man? Where the brook's gentle voice and the betterf

Filled my heart with such smiles of delight, Now tears bathe the blossoms that bloom in the

When the home of my birth comes to sight sigh when I see its dear walls to decay Crumbling now like the hopes I have named. root of all evil as fast as you cau dig it up. And I think, tike my own, its bright walls are Ah I which first will to dust be reclaimed?

> Where the woodbine its beautiful arms I wlues about the old door, and seems gladly My sad form 'neath the shade of its charm But the evergreens now have all faded and gon At their beautiful forms death has simed,

, give me a home in the shady retreat,

[Por the Louisville Sunday Democrat.] LINES TO -

ELIZABETHTOWN, KY., NOV , 1861

MT E. BENEST EVART.

Ah! which first will to dust be reclaimed:

Oh! could I bid the violets That blossom on the lea To keep within their tlny cup-One klas of love for thee

To linger near thee now, And softly breathe into thine car Affection's holy vow. Oh! could I reach the azure skles,

Oh! could I woo the fragrant winds

I'd trace thy image there, Among the glittering gems of night, In colors rich and rare. And if one little word of love

Upon my ear should fall, I'd fondly deem the precious gift A recompense for atl.

BY PHILANDER JUBUPSON, B. T.

(For the Louisville Sunday Democrat.)

-The Sunday Democrat, like the blood rculates, but, unlike the blood, not in

-The young man whose sweetheart turus out to be a fool mey well exclaim, "A iass -Shakspeare on marriage - "Double, ouble, toil and trouble." -The difference between a high toned genleman and a bass men is just about an

-Is it necessary lu order to sing in falsetto voice to have a false set o' teeth?

-A negro regiment passed through the city, recently, one thousand strong. -Don't compare the white and black roops-"Comparisons are odoroue." -The price of gold is $2 50-" Very ard cash " $i 50.

who has read "Ten Thousand a Year."

-"A man going to sea, his wife desires the prayers of the church." The preacher read it thus: " A man going to sea his wife, desires the prayers of the church." Don't you see the point!

-A disfranchised Freuchman is blind in one sense—he has lost his elective French

-Good health is the great sine qua non to happiness. So I thought when I had the chills and fever and hadn't a eign o' quinine about the house.

-To a candidate on his birth-day-Many happy returns.

-Be careful when you get a falls pilot that you don't get a false one. -To the Abolition candidates-" Die all, die nobly, die like demagogues."

-A young man about to be married about the ravens. I heard it frem when asked as to his wedding tour, said he comical manner how horrified the pa-ternal raveu was when the young one said he was going to Canton, and he did. rept out, and she saw that it was white.
"Who is this?" cried the little raven's

Drill for Single Volunteers. Full in-Love with some amiable and virtuous young woman on the first opportunity you may have.

Attention—Pay to her, assiduously and respectfully. Right Face-l'opping the question, like a an, and she'li accept you.

Quick March—To her parents and ask heir consent. Right Turn-With her to the church and after he had flown about for some time he go through the service of holy matrimony. Halt—And reflect seriously for a few mo-ments; then determine to devote yourself

Right-about Face-From the hannts that you have frequented when single, and prefer your own home. Advance Arms-To your young wife when

And he flew away again. But once more but walking together, and don't let her walk he returned, and then the young one had turned black

Break Off—Billierd playing, betting and staying out at night, if you wish to have a happy home.

STRETCH IT A LATTLE .- A little girl and her little brother were on their way to the grocer's the other morning. The roofs of the houses and the grass on the common were white with frost, and the wind was They were both poorly ciad, but the little girl had a coat over her, which she Come under my coat, "ohnay.

"It isn't big enough for both," was his guess I can stretch it a little," she

And they got as close together and as warm as two birds in the nest. How many chivering bodies, heavy hearts and weeping eyes there are in this world just because people do not etretch their comforts a little beyond themselves.

[Child's World. -Mrs. Francis L. Clayton, now in Maine enlisted in the army at St. Paul, Minn., with her husband, in 1861, and fought by his side in the battle of Stone River. She was in

[From the Shoe and Leather Reporter.] A Victim of Grief.

LOUISVILLE. KENTUCKY: SUNDAY MORNING. NOVEMBER 13, 1864.

BY STRAWS.

Bill — was a shoemsker, in a neigh-boring city to New York, and had the repu-tation among the craft of "rolling off of his seat," or, in other words, he was lazy. Bill was continually a victum of grief; and, Bill was continuely a victim of grief; and, when grieved, he could not well attend to the duties of his vocation. His griefs were withellong and frequent, and the intervals between one grief and the next wee of very short duration. He took a deep In-terest in affairs Municipal, State and National, besides being the head of a family, the direction of which latter incumbrance was another source of anxiety, and so from the first month in the calender to the letter, his mind was so fully employed that it interfered wofaily with the labor of his hands. Ilad these griefs paid for the in-dulgence therein, Bill might ere this have been a rich man, though he might have been, despite riches, an unhoppy man. The here of our tale wes a politicien in a small way, and at about the time the primery meetings were heid, his grief knew no bounds. At this time he forsook hie lap-stone, leid asids his awls and bristles, and Sadly weeping for joys she has never known. sallied forth to do or dis for his country. Ilis own party were continually departing from the old land-marks, and besides this they were nominating men whom he could not conecientionally support. At these times | Our end, sorrowing hearts; but bids them weep or Bill would make known his grievances to the opposite party, and aunounce his determination to bolt the ticket, and, for a slight consideration for his services, would small sign with the maiden whose lover is used.

And strew by thy breath laurel leaves o'er his head.

And strew by thy breath laurel leaves o'er his head.

And strew by thy breath laurel leaves o'er his head.

O, wilt Thou, who dost reign in Heaven above—

Thou Father of Pity, of Mercy and Love,

Grant to this long suffering nation blessed peace—

Thou Thou, who dost reign in Heaven above—

Thou Father of Pity, of Mercy and Love,

Grant to this long suffering nation blessed peace—

Thou Thou, who dost reign in Heaven above—

Thou Father of Pity, of Mercy and Love,

Grant to this long suffering nation blessed peace—

Thou Thou, who dost reign in Heaven above—

Thou Father of Pity, of Mercy and Love,

Grant to this long suffering nation blessed peace onsideration for his services, would su-Hoving an eye to business, besidee a Then, November, cease from thy wild walling desire to inform his own party that he was aggrieved at their rashness in putting up unacceptable candidates, he would inform them of his intention to cut aloof from them for this time and work for their opponents -which statement generally insured of palliative for his grief, in the shope of a few dollars. After having received a bonns cy—and this would occupy his mind so in-teusely as to cause him to forget all elee, "Yos," was the reply. 'I have understood his family included, and many were the sound neps, lasting a full day, which our here has enjoyed while in this semi-semnambulie state. When Bill's domicil was rendered too uncomfortable by reason of his wife's not viewing things in precisely the same light that he did, he had recourse the same light that he same light that he same light that he same light that he same li to the Lager Salcone in the ueighborhood, 'I've got one, if there ever was one. I've and 'zwei' npou "zwei' of the foaming got a boy that doesn't need speaking to but beverage coursed its way down his throat, until at last he would be lost in dreamy

I took the boy; and after he had been dom indulged except upon the eve of elec-tions, and then he was not invish in the sx-Finding at penditure for liquor for other people's Worcester county pretended to have such a throats. His frequenting of these places was more for the purpose of fulfilling his part of the contract—it was necessary that he should be seen there, as an evidence that he should be seen there, as an evidence he soon returned to live with me.

Thus no liquor for other people's worcester county pretended to have such a she shall have some every day. And perhaps she would like a chicken.'
But a moment later his countsnence fell.
"It isn't mine," he sighed. "It must be he dispises Lager, or that he would be so in our district, the Committee came to me must have dropped it."

Introduce his wife Bill's better-half, if we may be allowed the expression, was an industrious woman, plying her needlo daily with an avidity deserving of praise. She lamented her liegs to take him through. Well, said I, if the determined to go to Mr. Hubbard's most elegant, accomplished women most elegant, accomplished women ters, universally received the answer that learn rome trade. Johnuic selected a trade, he was "tired." She generally found him a good master in L the most exhausted when she hed planty of with whom he served his time. She was a woman who believed some in worldly prosperity, and heped, by of his apprenticeship, I said to his master, the aid of his earnings, to lay by a triffs for 'If you will take hold with me, we will send rainy days which might come in the future.

Her worldliness was another grief to Bill, and though he was never known to read ligh School, Johnnie was admitted to the the Bible, he had passed churches enough College, and, in due time, graduated with in his day to have heard the passage credit to himself and friends, and I am not any temptation in the way of the vegaboud

sponse offset by his indifference for the need speaking to but once l' norrow, no doubt afforded the text for and be like him? - [Congregationalist. many a curtain lecture, until at last he considered her a victim of insanity, or a mono maniec upon this subject of labor, and proposed a visit to her friends, there to remain antil such time as she might be restored to his embrace cured of her malady. His knowledge of the sciences was extremely limited. lie believed in good soft leather, and lost more time in endeavoring to save a little "cabbage" than the cabbage amountstory about the ravens. I heard it from state called into existence but the other day by the megic wand of President Lincoln—the snow-named State of Nevada.

I heard it from when asked as to his wedding tour, said he was going to Harre. Another oue, very fond of strong drink, said he was going to Harre. Another oue, very fond of strong drink, said he was going to that the ravens when they first come out of the eggs are white, and they relate in a little "cabbage thau the cabbage amounts when made. It is had tended door one evening for a lecturer fond of strong drink, said he was going to Harre. Another oue, very fond of strong drink, said he was going to Harre. Another oue, very fond of strong drink, said he was going to President that the ravens when they first come out of the eggs are white, and they relate in a little "cabbage thau the cabbage amounts when made. It is the distance for a lecturer fond of strong drink, said he was going to Harre. Another oue, very fond of strong drink, said he was going to President that the ravens when they first come out of the eggs are white, and they relate in a little "cabbage thau the cabbage amounts when made. It is the travens when they first come out of the eggs are white, and they relate in a little "cabbage thau the cabbage amounts" when asked as to his wedding tour, said as to his wedding tour, said as to his wedding tour, said a little "cabbage thau the cabbage amounts" when they directly and they capable of strong drink, said he was going to Harre. Another oue, very fond of strong drink, said he was going to Harre. Another oue, very fond of strong drink, said he was going to Harre. Another oue, very fond of strong drink, said he was going to Harre. Another oue, very fond of strong drink, said he was going to Harre. Another oue, very fond of strong drink, said he was going to Harre. Another oue, very fond of strong drink, said he was going to Harre. Another oue, very fond of strong drink, said he was going to Harre. Another oue, very fond of strong drink, said he though incomprehensible to him, yet appeared so reasonable withal, that he was ments. A thing of once, which, gone, never examined. But how is effect this was a posser. Should he affirm his belief in the doctrine, his wife would not give him credit therefor, knowing as she did that he seldom read anything, and that the sciences were the youth—that is it, after all; confess it! seldom discussed in the hannts he frequentwhat and where was the gramour, the power inviting an arbitrator—a mutnai friend of both parties, who should hear both sides of the story, and then pass judgment upon the questions at issue. The arbitrator, after at first fielly refusing, upon Issuring that it would be agreeable to both parties, consented to act, and upon the avening and the story and the story are stored to act, and upon the avening and the story are stored to act, and upon the avening and the story are stored to act. would be agreeable to both parties, consented to act, and, upon the sveuing appointed, was on hand to render what assistance he might be able towards the adjustment of diffionlties existing between this twain who had unhappily been made one; and after hearing the case stated ou both sides, with warmth and viger, proposed a phrenological examination of the heads of the loving couple. Bills head heads of the loving couple. Bills head former misced, say at parting for the night, passed through the orderi first. A enficient number of good qualities were represented to keep him in the best of humer, and then you to toes steepless all night on your bed, which now took possession of him. the counter-balancing propencities, more from a knowledge of him than of phrenology, were given to the great satisfaction of his wife, who was by no means an inattentive observer. The next head to be exinsignation on his part, as to the propriety matters to a stand-still between the phre-

As they were walking along she drew nelogist and his subject, while the appearance little companion close up to her, say, ancee were entirely to the contrary, as betwoen the two subjects.

Quiet being once more restored, the sxamiuation was proceeded with, and a character for industry and frugality was given her, making all due allowances for counter irritants, and thus from a thorough knowledge by the operator of the characters of both, a very correct delineation was given—the operator being himself entirely ignorant of the first principles of phrenology.

Suffice it to say the examination proved a success—both parties admitting the truthfulness of the delinsations, and after a ecture upon the duties and responsibilities of the household relation, a promise was given that in the future they would ea-deavor to live more happily, which promise, in the battle of Sjone River. She was in eighteen battles; ones a prisoner; three times except upon a few cocasions when Bill's sity to grief would cause him to for-

[For the Louisville Sunday Democrat.] TO "BURCHAM."

Forgive me if a careless thought, Traced in a weary hour, Has to thy heart the lesson taught, "A thorn for every flower."

Alas! that I in friendship's wreath Should twine a lotus bloom, To intermix its poisonous breath With roses' sweet perfume.

But cast aside the flow'r whose sting So radely pierced thy heart, And say what offering shall I bring To sooth and heal the smart?

Forgive me! Let this broken song My humble offering be, And may our friendship last thro' time, Lone, through eternity. BLOOMINGTON, KENTUCKY.

(For the Louisville Sunday Democrat.) NOVEMBER.

And mourning for beauties that are not her own. prolate! desolate! the hearts she now finds

Wailing and groaning. Alas! she ne'er biode And eigh for the days that are now past and gone. Ween with the widow who's now sad and lonely;

LAURA E. VIRDEN.

Speaking but Once. A STORY FOR BOYS.

Two geutlemen were riding together lu a from both parties, he was grieved to know how to work his cards so as to be consistent—for ho was a greet stickler for consistent—for ho was a greet stickler for consistent—cy—and this would occupy his mind so in—gentleman said: That is one of my boya.

I took the boy; and after he had been forgetfulness, again to suffer grief as the rotund Tenton would remind him that lodg-sked him how he should like to come and large was not included in the price paid for live with me. He said he should like it Bill was not a drunkard; indeed, he sel-claim upon him—for he was an orphan. He would not repair. Having said this much that, said the Committee. 'He'il not be by way of introducing Bill, allow as here contented. He loves his books too well.' lesired his assistance in household mat- you do not wish to study, you had better

Finding afterwards that a gentleman in

Finding that he kept his book at the close concerning the laying up of treasures, and ashamed to call him my boy. he had not the most remote idea of placing Boys, I have written these few lines so that this fact may not be lost; that at least thieves, who, he knew infested the city one boy has become an educated, highly rewhich he had honored with his birth. Thie worldly ambition on the part of his cause he was known as 'a boy who didn't

First Love.

Mr. Yatee, the novelist, in his new work, Broken to Harnees," thus discourses on the character of first love. He regards it. it will be seen, as a species of love we neve bound to secure the services of some one of comes again, but leaves behind it remembrances which, while they cause the lipe to -the youth is vanished forever and aye. Bill at last hit upon the expedient of What and where was the glamour, the power and to rise with the face of a marderer, and with something not very different from the mind of one. There were heartaches in physical state which would be as impossie te your mind now as would the early infantile freshness to your lined oheek, or the onrling locks of boyhood to your griz-aled pats. It is gone, clean gone. Perhaps it snapped off short with a wrench, leaving its victim with a gaping wound which the searing-iron of time has completely cientrised; perhaps it mellowed down into I did. calm, peaceful, conjugal, and anbaquantly paternal affection. But tell me not, O hard-hearted and worldly-minded bachelor, iutent on the subilmation of self, and cynically suough disposed to all that is luno-cent and tender-tell me not, O husband! proud of your offspring—tell me not that a regret for that banished time does not some times cross your mind, that the sense of having best the power of enjoying such two-penny happiness, sy, and such petry misery, does not cost you an occasional pang. It still goes on, that tragi-comedy, the same as ever, though the actors be different, though our places are now in the subject of the devil of the such as the great artifice and engine of the devil.

Whitefield.

What is life? Darkness and formless were, though the actors be different, though our places are now in the subject of the su to that blissful world whose pleasures and a cheque. whose sorrows now aliks fail to interest us. "How m

EDWARD'S TEMPTATION.

BY HORATIO ALGER, JR.

It was six e'clock in the afternoon. the partners to keep open natil later.
The duty of closing usually devoived upo

Edward Jones, a boy of fourteen, who had lately been engaged to perform a few slight "By preserving your lately been engaged to perform a few slight duties for which he received the sum of fifty dollars annually. He was the "boy," but if he behaved himself so as to win the approbation of his employers his chance of an extended to the sum of the epprobation of his employers his chance of romotion was good.

Yet there were some things that rendered this small salary a hard trial to him-circumstances with which his employers were nnacquainted. His mother was a widow. the entire family upon their own resources, and these were indeed but slender.

There was an older sister who assisted her mother to sew, and this, with Edward's mother and daughter as they heard his hursalary, constituted the entire income of the ried story, and Mrs. Jones thanked God for family. Yet by means of untiring indus-try they had continued thus far to live, using strict economy, of course. Yet they

And Mr. Hubbard siept none the worse using strict economy, of course. Yet they had wanted nene of the absolute necessa-

But Mary Jones—Edward's sister—graw sick. She had taken a severe cold which terminated in a fever. This not only out off the income arising from her own labor, out also prevented her mother from accom dishing as much as she would otherwise have been able to do. On the morning of the day on which our story commences, Mary had expressed a longing for an orange. In her fever it would have been most grateful to her. It is hard, indeed, when we are obliged to dany to those we love that which would be a refreshment and a benefit to them.

Mrs. Jones felt this, and so did Edward. "I ouly wish I could buy you ous, Mery," said Edward, just as he set out for the store. "Next year I shall receivs a larger salary and then we shan't have to pinch so much." "Never mind, Edward," said Mary, smil-og faintly. "I ought not to have asked ing faintly. for it, knowing how hard you and mother empty larder. "Only get weil, and we shall get on well enough afterwards." It was with the memory of this scene that Edward went to the store in the morn-

All around him were boxes of rich goods representing thousands of dollars in money.
"Oh," thought he, "if I ouly had the value of one of these boxes, how much good it would do poor Mary;" and Edward sighed. The long day were away at last, and Edward was about to close the warehouse.

But as he passed the desk of his amployer hie attention was drawn to a bit of paper lying ou the floor beneath.

He picked it np, and to his great joy found it to be a teu-dollar bill. The first thought that flashed upon him was: "How mush good this will do Mary.

"Still," urged the temptar, "he will never ungracions as to refuse the invitation of a with the inquiry, 'what was I going to de friend, for is so doing we might do him an injustice, which an apology for the injury will learn some trade.' 'Ilo oughtu't to de with that boy?' 'Oh,' said I, 'I suppose he injury will learn some trade.' 'Ilo oughtu't to de still Elle is worth a hundred thousand.' Still Edward was not satisfied. Whether Mr. Hubbard could spare it or not was not These few words set me to thinking, and the question. It was rightfully his, and > before he went home. The sight of his sick sister might perhaps weaken his resolu-tion, and this must never be. He must preserve his integrity at all hazards.

He knew where Mr. Hubbard lived. was a large, fine looking honse, ou a fashionable street. He had passed it several times and wondered whether a man must not feel happy who was able to live in such Without any unnecessary delay, therefore he went to the house, and, ascending the steps, rang the bell. A man servant came to the door. he eaid. "Is Mr. Hubbard at home?" "Yes, but he has only just come in, and I lon't think he can see you," was the rather supercilious reply. 'I am in his employ," said Edward, quietly, "and I have just come from the store. I think he will see me if you mention this Very well, you can come in.'

Edward was left standing in the ball while Mr. Hubbard was sought by the ser-"Well?" he said, inquiringly. anything happened? "No, sir," said Edward, "but I picked np this bill usar your desk, and supposed you ust have dropped it. I thought I better bring it here directly.'

Edward was gratified by his assurance, yet as the door closed behind him, and he yet as the door closed behind him, and he walked out late the street, the thought of men and massacred, save one cavalry offihis sister sick at home again intruded upon cer and a few of his men, who acted in conhim, and he thought regretfully how much Not that he regretted that he had been cluded to hide the treasure in the ground, honest. There was a satisfaction in doing and to divide it after the expiration of right, but I think my readere will under- one year. Mrs. Joues brought semo toast to her daughter's bedside, but Mary motioned it was a coave walled up by the rocks, the inaway. "I thank you for taking the trouble to make it, mether," she said, "but I don't think I could possibly eat it."

was a cave watted up by the rocks, the interstices filled with earth and plants, and finally a little brook was directed in such a manner as to pass, like a cataract, over ink I could possibly eat it."

"Is there anything you could relish, the place. that we can get.

It was with a heavy heart that Edward robbers did not enjoy their treasure, as al-house Mr. Hubbard entered. He did not at secret from the lips of an aged, hose days, real dead, dull pains, sickening ongings, spasms of hope and fear; dim lired of missing the prize on the attainment of which the whole of life was set; a were stored.

He smiled pleasantly as Edward entered hie presence.
"Tall me frankly," he said, "did you not feel an impulse to keep the bill which you found last night?"

"Teli me all about it," said Mr. Hubbard.

I should usver have known it." "I knew that," said Edward. "Then what withheld you from taking however devoted to your wife, however "First, I will tell you what tempted me, etter thow, and yet at the same time be the proud of your offspring—tell me not that a said Edward. "My mother and sister are thow, and yet at the same time be the proud of your offspring—tell me not that a said Edward. "My mother and sister are true followers of the meek and lowly Jenegret for that banished time does not some obliged to depend upon sewing for a living.

The same time to the meek and lowly Jenegret for that banished time does not some obliged to depend upon sewing for a living.

The same time to the meek and lowly Jenegret for that banished time does not some obliged to depend upon sewing for a living.

"And yet you did not take it?"

"Fifty dollars a year," said Edward. "Henceforth your duties will be increased, and I will pay you two hundred. Will that piease you?"

"Two hundred dollars a year!" exclaimed this time the great wholesale warchouse of Mesors. Hubbard & Son was wont to close, unless the pressure of business compelled the partners to keep and at the end of the year that will be increased, if, as I have no doubt, you continue to merit my confidence."
"Oh, sir, how can I thank you?" said

oan get cashed at the bank. And, by the way, you may have the rest of the day to yourself."

Edward flew to the bank, and with his sudden riches hastened to the market where he purchased a supply of provisions such The sudden death of Mr. Jones had thrown as he knew would be welcome at home, and then made haste home to announce hie good fortune. A weight seemed to fail off the hearts of that night that at a slight pecuniary sacrifice he had done a kind action, confirmed

Girls Should Learn to Keep Honse. "No young lady can be too wall instructed in anything which will affect the com-fort of a family. Whatever position in so-ciety she occupies, she useds a practical knowledge of household duties. She may be placed in such circumstances that it will not be necessary for her to perform such domestic labor, but on this account she needs no less knowledge than if she were obligad to preside personally over the cooking stove and pantry. Indeed, I have often thought that it is more difficult to direct others, and requires more experience, than to do the same work with our own hands.

"Mothers are frequently so nice and par-ticular that they do not like to give up any part of their care to their children. This is a great mistake in their management, for they are often burdened with the labor and need relief. Children should be early taught to make themseives useful; to assist their parents every way in their power, and to consider it a privilege to do so. "Young people cannot realize the importance of a thorough knowledge of house-wifery; but those who have suffered the inconvenience and mortifications of ignorance can well appreciate it. Children rance can well appreciate it. should be early indulged in their disposi-tion to bake, and experiment in cooking in various ways. It is often but a trouble-some help that they afford; still it is a great advantage to them. "i know a little girl who at nine years old made a loaf of bread every week during the winter. Her mother taught her how much yeast, and salt and flour to use, and she became quite an expert baker. When-ever she is disposed to try her skill in mak-ing simple cakes or pies she is permitted to do so. She is thus, while amusing herself, was more for the purpose of fulfilling his part of the contract—it was necessary that he should be seen there, as an evidence that he was ground. We will not say that he dimines learn or that he weathly a contract of the contract—it was necessary that he soon returned to live with me.

One day at the examination of the school must have dropped it."

haps she would like a chicken.'

But a moment later his countenance fell.

"It isn't mine," he sighed. "It must be calls her, her little housekeeper, and often permits her to get what is necessary for the dimines learn or that he wealth he would be completed and the complete of the contract—it was necessary that he well not say that the examination of the school must have dropped it." and very musical the jingling is to her ears. I think before she is out of her teens, upon which she has not yet entered, she will have some idea how to oook. "Some mothers give their daughters the care of housekeepers, each a wesk by turns. It seems to me a good arrangement, and a

"Domestic labor is by no means incom-patible with the highest degree of refinemost elegant, accomplished women I have known have looked well to their honsehold luties, and have houored themselves and Thus far from Anna Hope; and who Anna Hope is, we know not; but one thing we are sure of: she is not wise above what is written. Solomon speaks the praise and properties of a good wife, in Proverbs, xxxi Giris, will you road it? Begin at vsrse 10. Economy, taste, skill in cooking, and neatness of the kitchen, have a great deal to do in making life happy and prosperous. The charm of good housekeeping is in the order, economy, and taste displayed in attention to little things; and these little things have a wonderful influence. A dirty kitchen and bad sooking have driven many a one from home to seek comfort and hap piness somewhere alse. None of our excel-lant girls are fit to be married until they are thoroughly educated in the deep and profound mysteries of the kitchen.

A MIDDEN TREASURE.-The Emperor Maximilian, says a German journal, has a' chance of digging out a hidden treasure.

The highly romantic story is as follows: When Napoleon I. dethroned the Bourbons in Spain, the Mexicans (whose eyes had been opened by Humboldt to the effect that they were a nation of seven millions, and subdued by eighty thousand Spaniards) "and I will remember it. Honesty is a very became encouraged and threw off the Spaniards) became encouraged and threw off the Spanish yoke. The vice-king sent during the revolution four million of gold pieces, together with other numerous transmissions.

m, and he thought regretfully how much cert with the robburs. To avoid the vigi-ed could have been done with ten dollars. lance of the Government, the bandits con-

Now the robbers spread out the rumor "No," said she, hesitatingly; "nothing that the whole story of the robbery was invented by the vice-king himself, and that Mrs. Jones sighed, a sigh which Edward he had brought the treasure in safety. The so acoused was called to account. But the which now took possession of him.

ile set about his duties as usual. About travelier named Muller, celebrated by his two hours after he had arrived at the ware- climbing the Pie of Orizaba, learned the the story. THE WARFARE OF SECTS .- Though we all profess to own one Lord, one faith, one baptism; though Jesus Christ never was, and never will be, divided in Himself; yet "I hope you won't be offended with me, Mr. Hubbard," said Edward, "if I say that selves; and what has rendered the case more to be pitied is, that they have generwith interest. "What was it that withheld ally been divided about the circumstantials of religion; they have generally received one another to doubtful disputation, and embittered one auother's hearts, by talk-ing about those things which they might either do or not do, either know or not of human consciousness finding itself affoat upon the bosom of waters without a shore; "No, sir, it wou'd heve been wrong, and then a few sunny smiles and many feare; could not have looked you in the face after a little love and infinite strife; whisperings from l'aradise, and flerce mockeries from the anarchy of chaos; dust and ashes, and once more darkuess circling round as if Mr. Hubbard went to the desk and wrote from the beginning, and in this way round cheque.

"How much de I pay you now?" he asked. existence.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY HARNEY, HUGHES & CO. -OFFICE-

outh Side Green Street, two doors be low the Customhouse.

SUNDAY, NOV. 13, 1864.

CITY NEWS.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.-Rev. W. T. Wood, o Edmonton, Kentncky, will preach to-day (Sunday), November 13th, at the Baptist Church on Market street, below Eighth.

CALVARY CHURCH .- Rev. W. A. Snively will conduct services at Calvary Church, Third street, Sunday, November 13th, at 11 A. M. and POLICE PROCEEDINGS-Saturday, Nov. 12,-J. J. Jones, drunkenness and disorderly conduct; $200 for three months.

Kegman; bail in $500 to answer at the Circuit

Joseph Friend, drunk and disorderly-bestbehavior.

Mary Reible, drunkenuese and disorderly to participate in aiding the association in its conduct; $200 for three months.

Wm. Shoemaker and Wm. Doyle, drunkenness; fined $5 each.

Wm. Fanning, drunkennese; fined $3. Richard Hnnt, disorderly conduct; he was sent to the Provost Marshal.

Ann Welch, drunkenness and disorderly conduct; hail in $100 for two months. O. T. Ward, shooting at L. L. James with intent to kill, but without wounding: the party waived an examination and gave bond in $300 to answer. He was also required to give security in $500 to keep the peace for six months.

Thomas Ridge, robbing Pat Maloy of $9; continued until Monday morning. The ordinance warrant docket was post

poned until next Saturday. Wm. Spaulding, charged with the killing of Charles Hupts and August Suyder, last Sain'day night, and John Quinn Saturday afternoon, by rnunlag over them on the Firststreet rallroad. At the time we left the Courthouse, this case was still under investigation. A man named B. Dolson was left remaining on the prisoner's bench; but as no one knew who arrested him, he was discharged.

BARRACKS No. 1 .- Durlog the past week busivess at Barracks No. 1 has been very lively. Yesterday was the most busy day of the week. A large unmber of men, who have been home voting, are now returning, and each one is furnished with a seperate ticket of transportation, which keeps the clerks very buey furnishing them to the large numbers demanding them. One hundred and forty cenvalescenis arrived from different polnta yesterday; two bundred and ninety men from cinuall, and three to other places.

ARREST AND ROBBERT -On Friday night late Mr. J. B. Lucsa, sutler at Fort No. 1, opposite the Brown Rospital, on the Prestonstreet road, come to the city, and was arrested at the "Spot," on the corner of Lalayette and Preston streets, by a sergeant and some men. They took from him a fine pistol and two $20 gold pieces. He has since had the pistol returncharged $40 in gold for dolug so.

CITY .- Yesterday was rather a pretty daya little too windy and cool for a pleasant one, but so the sun behaved very well we will not complain. A number of ladies were out upon streets, and in attendance at the matinees. Business was rather brisk everywhere, No news of importance transpired worthy of note. We heard of no serious accidents, no cruel murders, no important arrests, no rumors extraordinary marriages. Altogether, it was a day well spent in this city. The night was cool, clear and quiet.

THANKS .- The good looking members of the Hesperian Club gave a spiendid solree at the residence of one of our citizens on Friday evening. A large number of handsome young ladies honored the occasion with their preaence, and they honored us with a rich and bountiful supper, which was put up by them for us to put down. Ladles, accept our thanks, and may none of your ever be like the supper you sent us-down in the month.

THANKSGIVING DINNER AT THE HOSPITALS. -Members of the Lidles' Soldiers' Ald Society, of the Christian and Sanitery Commissions, Chaplains and Surgeons of the Hospitals, are requested to meet at the small hall of the Masouic Temple, Monday morning at 10 o'clock, to make arrangements for providing a Thanksgiving dinner for our sick and wonaded soldiers. A full and punctual attendance is desired.

Cigar Manufacturers.

The cigar manufacturers of the city Louisville are requested to meet in the back room of the Assessor's office, on Jef ferson street, between Third and Fourth on Thursday afternoon, the 17th, at three o'clock, as matters of the greatest interest to all will be brought before the meeting.

SAM. B. MCGILL. New Song -The last new song written and composed by Will S. Hays is having an immease run. It is one of his best and most pleasing productions, and la dedicated to his good-looking friend Capt. Brennan. It ie entitled "Oh! I wish this War was Over," and D. P. Faulds, ou Main street, publishes it.

SICK AND WOUNDED .- A large number of sick and wounded passed through this city during the past week going home on inrlough. Two thensand and eighty arrived, and a few stopped at the hospitals in this city, being unable to travel any further.

McGill Club.

The McGill Club will meet at Beck's Hell on Wednesday evening, the 16th Irstent, at 7 o'clock. Every member should be present, as business of importance will come before the meeting.

As a general thing there was very little business of a public character done in military circles during the past week. There is no military excitement in the State at pres-

PERSONAL -Brigadier General Ed. McCook and staff are at the Louisville Hotel, in the full enjoyment of health and the hospitalities of that popular institution.

The freight train was detained at the Frankfort depot two hours yesterday morning, waiting for a lot of soldiers. The train went off without them. MESSES. EMNIT & Co.-We refer our readers to the conspicuous advertisement of Messrs. Emmitt & Co. in to day's paper. immense asle of cheap dry goods at the New inside and out.

Mr. J. T. Brown, clerk of the Freestone, has our thanks for Memphis papers. David Channon was put in the guardhouse yesterday.

LOUISVILLE ASSOCIATION FOR IMPROVING THE CONDITION OF THE POOR.—At the meet to act as the Executive Committe for the asociation for the ensuing year:

First Ward-Robert H. Snyder and James T. Lec. Second Ward-Wm. White and Wm. F. Third Ward-Pat. Campion and Wm. H.

Fourth Ward-Samuel H. B.ker and Clark Bradley. Fifth Ward-Jos. T. Tompkins and F. C.

Sixth Ward-Goo, W. Herbert and S. Hart-Seventh Ward-R. A. Robinson and J. B

Welman.

8mlth. Eighth Ward-Wm. Kendrick and W. H. Grainger. Ninth Ward-Andrew Graham and A. P.

Tenth Ward-D. Spaiding, Jr., and B. F.

A committee was chosen to look out for anitable location for a general depot for the use of the association. Mesers, Burkhardt, Samuel Johnston, stealing a horse from E. Robt. J. Elilott and Wm. Kaye were selected. The association then adjourned to meet again at the City Council Chamber on Friday evening, the 18.h instant, at 7 o'clock. All ing his wife; ball in $300 for six months' good the members of the Executive Committee, and such isdies and citizens as feel disposed

> JEO. W. CLARKE, Sec'y. The following soldiers died in hopitals In this city during the week ending November bonevolent objects, ere requested to attend.

12, 1864 : 23, 1009:
Alfred Burress, co. I, 6th Ky. Cav.
Stephan C. Haw ey, co. D., 18ad O. V. I.
Wm. P. Pool, co. —, 29th Ky. Cav.
Wm. Miller, co. D., 26th Ky. Cav.
Um. Miller, co. D., 26th Ky.
Unbukorniur Vollat, 183d Ohlo.
Peter Vickers, co. A., 129th U. S. C.
Jordan Willias, co. C., 122d U. S. C.
Luke Willeon. Jardan Williss, co. C, 1284 U. S. C.
Luke Wilson.
Tom Parley, co. —, 1234 U. S. C.
Pener Thompson, co. G, 115th U. S. C.
Washington Carter, co. C, 1284 U. S. C.
Joseph Tompkins, co. A, 120th U. S. C.
Thomas O. Aklason, co. B, 1224 U. S. C.
Samuel Willies, co. II, 115th U. S. C.
John Crow, co. B, 118th U. S. C.
Richard Smith, co. C, 1234 U. S. C.
Eduund Martin, co. I, 115th U. S. C.
Jeaac Morgae, co. H, 115th U. S. C.
Jeaac Morgae, co. C, 1234 U. S. C.
Louis Woiley, co. I, 115th U. S. C.
George Chapman, co. D, 115th U. S. C.

PRISONERS OF WAR.-The following is a list of the prisoners of war transferred from the military prison, Louisville, Ky., since November 1, 1863: Non-com's of officers and privates.

474
6,142
746
946 947
1,668
1,273
8 3 247
1,771
8 5 66
3 1,235 Fleld, staff Non-com's'd Politics ers. 3 955 108 18.638

ARRESTED -Some two weeks ago Brown's lotel, on Jefferson street, between Sixth and Madison, Wisconsin, and one hundred and fifty | Seventh, was robbed of $500, five five watches from Jackson, Michigan; eight hundred and and other property, but the thief had eluded forty were sent to Nashville, sixty-three to the vigliance of the police until yesterday. Lexington, two to Clarksville, eleven to Cin- A detective arrested a man usmed Geo. R.ndolph, on Third street, who is charged with having committed the robbery. He had on his person when arrested $711 75, which is unprosed to be the amount of money stolen and the proceeds derived from the sale of the watches. He is also charged with being a bounty-jumper and a deserter. He is in the military prison awaiting a hearing of his case.

A New Work - We have been prescuted ed to him, but he is unable to get a cent of his with a splendld copy of a very valuable and money back. There is rescality practiced by interesting work entitled "Peters' Art of Singig," handsomely bound in more and the autler's money refunded to him. It is C. Peters, of Cincinnati. For those who may bad enough to be arrested, without being desire to confine their vocal powers to the perlor and family circlesthis work is compiled, with the author's beilef that a careful study of the rules leid down for their guidance will be found useful and at the same time agreeable. We recommend it cheerfully as one of the best vocal lustructors we have ever seen. and we have no doubt the work, will have a tremendous run.

Cauel.-It is shameful to see the manner in which some government teamsters abuse the of wer lu our State, no remarkable deaths or poor brutes intrusted to their charge. We noticed a new government train going up Main street vesterday, and the driver was amusing bimself by cutting the poor horses with his whip, when if he had let the horses alone they would have done much better. Drivers, how would you like to be cut until the blood runs down your backs for doing the beat you could? Trest your horses gently, and they will obey you better.

> THE TRIAL OF WM. SPAULDING .- Wm. Spaulding, the young man who had charge of the engine on the First-street rallroad last August Snyder were killed, was arraigned be fore the Police Court for murder, The testimony in the case was finished, but as he is also charged with causing the death of a small child named John Qolnn the same day, Judge Johnston deelined giving any opinion in this case until the other is investigated, which will be Monday morning.

Soldiers' Rest .- This new institution, on the corner of Seventh and Main atreets, done a large amount of business during the post week. The clever clerks furnish us with the following number of men who have been entertained at their tables during the past week:

.27,521 VOTE OF JEFFERSON COUNTY .- The official vote of Jefferson county, including the city of Lonisville, la sa follows:

McClellan'e majority4,388 By the above it will be seen that the total ote of the county is 8,530, PERMITS.—The following permits have been sened during the week ending November 12.b, by Lieutenaut Charles Cary: Total . 349 The clerk in the Provost Marshal's of-files has fraued the following number of passes since the first of the month : White officers

.877 W. H. Ebrich, the popular newsdesler at the corner of Third and Main streets, has just returned from St. Louis. He has our thanks for full files of papers. Mr. Ehrich is in recelpt of all the periodicals and megazines pub lished in the country. FIRE -The alarm of five yeaterday morning was occasioned by the butning of a chimney at Walker's Exchange. The fire was extinguished before any damage was done. McALLISTER.-This noted individual had another five audience at Masonie Templa last night. Mae has had a flae time of it during bis stay in tols city. IMPROVING -We notice the Fourth Presby erian Church is undergoing repairs which it Mesars. Barker & Co. continue their has long needed. It will also be repainted There are quite a number of uncalledfor letters belonging to soldiers in the barracks postoffice on Main street. The Eastern mail was on time yesterday, Go it, Seymour,

A BOLD TRICK -Friday night a party of oung ladies and gentlemen were quietly enlog held on Friday evening at the Mayor's joying themselves playing cards in the parior office, the following gentlemen were elected of a private residence on Chestant street. dition of affairs in our country, when our medweary hours away, little dreaming that an- shoulder, and a voice saluting us withother game was being played at the same time in the same house. Some person or persons quietly entered the peaceful residence and you looking so wall; take a seat." first locked the party up in the room, putting the keys in their pockets. Their next move was to enter several rooms, upset and look along?" into everythlaz, leaving things very much in through the premises. The party laughed and profit by my dear-bought experience." played in their ignorance of the state of affairs pald a visit to the cellar, and while one young lady was boasting of "a lone hand" she held, and a gentleman was about to declare that he had the best hand around the board, and others were ready to "sasist," iol the gas went out! The intruders had inrued off the gas in the darkness with the keys in their possession. There the party sat in ignorance and darkness, locked up in the room, the ladies somewhat servous, and the gentlemen somewhat puzzled and "skeered." A move was made, the locks were uncorewed with the aid of a jack knife, and the party, with one lighted candle, all armed a militaire, with a stair rod as a weapon of no person, nothing missing and nobody hurt. The one candle wea cut up into short "rations," sud each one drew their portion, after which they followed their dim lights cautiously to their several cots to dream of their night's > DISEASES OF THE EYE AND EAR. -Dr. Gardner, formerly of London, England, ocullat has been meeting with great anccess in tha principal cities of the United States since his arrivel in this country, respectfully informs the citizens of Louisville and vicinity that ha has taken rooms at the Louisville Hotel, parlor No. 117, first floor, and can be consulted daily from 9 a. M. to 1 P. M , and from 2 to 6 r. M., on deafness, noise in the head, catarrb, discharges from the ear, acales in the ear, accumulation of wax in the ear, polypas in the ear, obstruction of the custochlan tube and all acute or chronic diseases of the ear and air passages.

Artificial eyes inserted without pain, and perfectly recembling the natural eye. Operations for estaract, atrabismus or cross eye, artificial pupil, &c., skillfully performed, and all diseases of the eye and car treated, and every operation in aural and opthalmic surgery performed by Dr. Gardner.

Any one desirous of having his opinion of any case relating to either the eye or the ear, will at all times receive the same caudidly. If application be made in person, he is generally able to inform the legalrer whether or not a cure can be effected; if not, whether relief can be given, and to what extent,

Rebel deserters discharged from the

November 1, 1863: 8 537

Not 2Hot.-It will be remembered that five Federal soldiers were to be executed on last Friday on the charge of being deserters. The President has revoked the order, and instead t being executed they will be sent to the Dry Toriugas for life. Some time ago, we believe, the President issued an order to the effect that no more soldiers should be shot for describe, but that all deserters should be baulshed from the country and sent to the Dry Tortugas as a punishment for their erime.

this city, and sa this was not the Dry Toringas, it was thought best to put him in prison until the authorities at St. Louis or New Orleans could be heard from. RELEASED. -The following persons were released from military imprisonment yesterday: Fred. Walkoff took the oath; J. W. Colston, of Oidham county, took the oath; Jas. Higdon took the oath and gave $5,000 bonds, and S. and D. Frezier each took the cath. There have been very few persons relesaed during the past week.

FOUND -At an early hour yesterday morn-Saturday night, at the time Charles Hupts and pocket-handkerchief, a head-net and an direction and the other howling in another. empty pocket-book. We searched for the remainder of the unfortunate female, but suppose she has been blown clear away. Her name is on the corner of the handkerchief.

A negro soldier, belonging to the One Hundredth colored infantry, was brought here in irons from Nashville yesterday. He is charged with "intent to kill" something or somebody some time ago somewhere near Someraet.

IMPROVING - We are glad to learn that Maor Plesener, City Provost Marshal, who has has been ill for some time past, has so far re covered as to be able to discharge his official duties again in a few days.

stole the inside of the shop and is supposed to it for me." have opened at some other place,

Three guerrilles were seen on the Bards town turppike Friday with ten horses in their porsession. Of course they belonged to some DESERTERS - Eighte:u deserters arrived ere from Cinelinatl yesterday. Euch of and chaln.

REBEL PRISONERS. - The whole number of military prison in this city since October, 1862, heart's content: "Oh! there's no such girl as la 40,000. Our clever and accomplished friend,

James G. George, Eeq., has our Indehtedness he live. John Warford, a deserter from the in the chorus: draft, was arrested in Lebanon, Kentucky, a few days since, and brought to this city yesterday. Passes.-Three bundred passes have been lesned during the past week by the gentlemenly clerks at Post Headquarters in this Mr. Hoster, the elever messeager of for Cincinnati papers in advance of the mails, City. COMING.—We learn that Newcomb's brunt ork opera troupe will visit our city shortly. We will give them a hearty wile me. Mr. J. G. Dugan, the clever Adams Express Company messenger, has our thanks for Nashville papers of yesterday. OFFICERS -Ose hundred and thirly seven officers have reported themselves in this city year-olds, at an average of $100 each, which since the first of the month. per Fred. Kolepo got out of the barracks guard-house yesterday by taking the oath of guerrillus went into Simpsonville, Kentucky, allegiance. All was quiet on the Nashville raffrond and its branches yesterday.

Got a Wife. We were quietly sented at our desk, a few recoings since, meditating over the sad conand beauty of the Church of Jesus Christ, as They were talking, isughing and playing the litation was cut short by a heavy slap upon the It is also the secret of its Godlike power in of the Gospei. Division, and its consequent jealousles and hitter controversies, have filled

"Ah! Quill, how are you?" "Why, Driver, old boy, we are glad to see

"Thank you," (Takes a scat.) "Well, as you are married, how do you get scoffleg luftdels. "Quill, as we were schoolmates, as a matthe condition that guerrillas would have done, ter of course I feel no hesitancy in confiding doubtful progress in the world's conversion in fact, making a general recognolasance to you, so I will just tell you, that you may Good men everywhere feel and deplore these

"Why, Driver, you are not regretting your going on around them. The intruders next marriage with the rich, handsome and fashonable Miss Slimmer?"

"No, not that, exactly; but thez she is to fashionable," "How so, Driver?" "Well, I will just give you a bit of my ex- gliddy, and the feeling heart is ready to faint, perieuce in married life. When I first made at the prospect of moral desolation which cellar, and made their escape through the Sophia Silmmer Sophia Driver, I thought I apreads over the land. could have eaten her up." "And, no doubt, you wish you had since." "That's true. She told me she could cook, rash, iron, sew, and, in fact, could do sny thing and everything any one else could do.' "That was before you got her," said we. "Yes, and her mother declared 'her daughter should never be anybody's slave;' and, as moral, political and social formations are by far the CHEAPEST aver offered to the public, bedefense, started cautionsly out through the a matter of course, I didn't intend that she nouse in pursuit of the intruders. They found should be anybody's slave. So, to make her easy on that subject, I promised everything and anything to get my wife's consent, and-

"You got it, Driver." 'Yes! Well, we rented a house and fitted t ap handsomely, and commenced life under favorable circumstances; had a negro cook, an Irish waitress, and a house girl; and, in charm of beauty to the other. In the works fact, nothing was wenting that would add to of nature, we see infinite diversity, yet no the happiness and comjust of a happy home and aurist, operator on the eye and ear, who but what was furnished regardless of expense."

"And are you not happy?" "Me! anything else than happy. I have just come to tell you how a fashioushle young lady would go about keeping house, and maka an example of Mrs. Driver. Not for the public, you know."

"Oh, of course not." "Well, on Monday the cook mashed her too with an ex, and a brindle terrier pup went to snatch the most out of Biddy's hand and mabbed her by the hand."

"And the house servani?" "Ran off the next day, leaving Mrs. Driver stlend to and do all."

"And how does she progress?" "Oh, splendidly! I went home to dinner rom my office and found my wife in the kitchen. There was about four husbels of coal in the stove, which was booming hot, and she had enough meet and vegetables boiling, rosst' ing, and burning on that stove to supply the boarders at the Louisville Hotel, I looked around, and there stood my wife in one of her finest seventy-five-doller silk dresses lu soapauda up to her elbows, with the wash-board sticking in the tub wrong end up, and about two pounds of soap sticking in the mouth of a augar-bowl sitting on a table near by. In military prison, Louisville, Kentucky, since a hig kettle sitting on the melting stove was about six pounds of starch boiling; and when she told me to turn the rosst over in the stove. I found said rosst in one black criep, dwindled down to a nothingness. Then to put a flalah-ing touch on affiles, she told me to hand her a red-hot iron. (There was four or five sitting about on the stove.) I did so; but she took hold of it with her bare hand, and dropped it upon her toes. She fell against the wash-tub, upset it, and it struck one corner of the stove-knocked a leg from under it, and--" "Away went the dinner, we suppose." "Yes, air; and away went the long-tailed est, that was burned with a pot of boiling starch. I picked my wife up and helped her to throw a bucket of water apon the fire when I found the bucket full of hot pickles, which she had put in to cool. I ran out into the yard right quick, and ran against the nump-handle and broks it off-

" And then... " "I rushed back into the kitchen, selsed a hrase kettle and ran to the pump on the corner sitting in New Orlesns, tried and sentenced a of the street. I came hack with it about helf man named Henry C. Samuels to the Dry full, caught my foot in my wite's dress, fell Tortugas. Yestarday he was picked up in down and threw the breas kettle into a $73 mirror. Up I got, and mada for the kitchen. I saw the brindle pup seize a hot shost by the head, and make for the door. I kicked at him as he went out, when the other loot slipped from under me, and I lit, ker slost! ou the floor, heels up, among the pots, pickies, otatoes, grease, sospends, and wet clothes. The old regro cook hobbled in, and aralated me to arise in time to plant my heavy bootbeel upon her chopped toe, which act her to dancing the highland fling la the latest and most approved style. Biddy said there was too much noise in the house, and slapped the crippied negro in the mouth with ing we found on the street a lady's wig, a her sore hand; and one went hobbling in one went into the room where Mrs. Driver sat grunting and groaning, and sat down beside her. In a minute B ddy came rushing in with Furnishing Emporlum, 213 cast side Fourth address cat in her hand, saving, 'Misther street, near Main. a defunct cat in her hand, saying, 'Misther Dhriver, sur, the bloody nabers have acawided the poor est to a crisp;' and Mrs. Driver's stomach turned at the sight of the cat, and she rolled out of her chair. I stooped to p'ek her up, when in rushed the hrindle pup with one-half the shoat in his mouth, and the old negro close in his rear with a stick of wood, He spled the cat in the hands of Biddy, and went for it; but she unthoughtedly tossed the system; it creates a good appetite, and is war-ranted to enre dyspepsy and nervous debility. For sale by druggists generally at $1 per bottle. Prepared by Dr. A. Strickland, 6 East Fourth street, Cinciunati, O. an17 dwdsudwoow3m est into the bot grate, and-" "Did the dog go after the cat?" "Well, Qalli, Mrs. Driver lewick. I am A man sold some whicky to soldiers a hanting a boarding house. I wish to adverfew days since and his shop was shut up. He tise for two rooms. Turn around and write

"Ot course; sing it out," WANTED: For a sorrowful husband and a fashionable wife, two room t with board.

Address " DRIVER." " Well, Driver, will that sult you?" "Yes and, Qalll, take my advice: never marry a fashlonable girl these war times. I wish I had been drafted, but it's too late now." "Ah! Drithem was attached to a thirty-five pound ball | ver, I sympathize with you, really." "Come out and see us soon." Driver pulled his hat over his eyes, remmed his fists in his pockets, and rubel prisoners that have passed through the [47 A copy of a rebel acur comprising ten or fifteen verses was picked up in a descried for his many favors to this office. Long may eamp of Forrest's cavalry by one of the Federal pursuing party, after their late attack on Memphis. The gist of the whole is contained

"Eard times coming, Starvation now at hand; Officers cat the flour broad, And soldiers cat the hear."

Man Killed -Abner Prather was shot and killed instantly at Brownstown, Jackson conn ty, Ind., on election day by John Tanner, who made his escape. The difficulty grew out of politics. Tunner is said to be a clerk the Adams Express Company, has our thanks in one of the departments in Washington he says was less than half their value.

BWA mixed figure—to say that a more is as and robbed acveral of the citizens.

bc(a)rse as a raven.

"Asleep in Jerus! B'oseed sleep! From which none ever wake to weep; A calm and undisturbed repose, Unbroken by the tust of foca," Ray. Etisha Carr was murdered in Bedford county, Tennessee, a few days ago hy robbers. They asked him to pilot them to certain man's house, and upon his refusal to do so they shot and killed him. J. M. Trimble, of Hillaboro, Ohio. rormtly sold at private sale twenty-three head of thorough-bred cattle, from calves to three GUERRILLAR -On Friday King and three

> Barth hea one loving spirit loss,
> And Heaven one angel more:
> Will write this of the man wa!
> Not dead—but gone before." Louisville. November 19th, 1884.

SEWING MACHINES.

(For the Louisvilla Sunday Democrat.)

Unity is the basis of the wisdom, strength

Church Unity.

making the conquest of the world to the faith

our churches with weak and sickly members, and filled the world with sneering sceptics and

The Church la grouning under the mighty burden of these evils, so that she is making evi's, sad would rejoice to aid in any pradent and acriptural effort to correct them and restore the Church to its primitive unity, spirituality and power. Never, in the history of the American churches, was there an occasion for such heart-searchings as at the present. The head of the thoughtful grows

Unity in divorsity is an enigma in religion, as it is in unture. In each, one adds the want of unity. In the trees of the forest, the leaves and flowers of spring, the fruits of autumn, in the cceans, sess, lakes, and streams of water, we see infinite diversity, mind sicken with the tosteless sameness.

every kindred heart.

drowned.

Shall there he less harmony in God's moral,

than lu His natural, universe? Shall the prin-from the steamer Emerald, Wednesday, while lying at the wharf at Evansville, and was Gnerrillas are committing their depredations in Woodford and Morcor, as well as in Franklin county. If Gen. Barbridge could send out forces sufficient to exterminate these peets he would confer upon the State a great

The Jo. Pierce recently west into New Orleans with upwards of 600 bales of cotton.

LOCAL NOTICES.

FANCY GOIDS.—Another splendid lot have just arrived at Gay's China Palace, Fourth and Green streets.

COAL OIL LAMPS -A splendid stock at the Central House Furnishing Emporium, 213 matelde Fourth street, near Main.

ware, gleasware, silver plated ware, at Gay's Chins Paince, Fourth and Green atrects.

FRATHER DUSTARS—All sizes at the Coutral Mouse-Furnishing Emporium, 213 east side Fourth street, near Main.

FEATHER DUSTERS.—A large lot have just arrived at Gay's Causa Palace, Fourth and

HOUSE FURNISHING ARTICLES IN GENERAL

A very full stock at the Central House-Fur-nishing Emporium, 213 cast side Fourth street, near Main. Housekeepers will field this the piece for a flue assorment and low

COAL OIL FIXTURES. -A fine lot of chande

llers, elde and hauging limps; also a full assort ment of stand lamps, and the finest quality of coal oil, at Gay's Chine Palace, Fourth and

BRUSHES-All kinds at the Central House

BRITANNIA WARE. - A large lot at Gay's China Palace, Fourth and Green streets.

DISPERST, NERVOY NESS AND DEBILITY-

Dr. STRICKLAND'S TONIC.—We can recommend those suffering with loss of appetite, in digestion or dyspepsy, nervousness and ner-vous debility, to use Strickland's Tonic. It is a vegetable preputation, free from alcoholic flquors. It strengthens the whole nervous

MARRIED.

On the evening of the 16th fact, at the Chestnut at Frashsterian thurch, by the Rev. J. L. M'Kee, Bris Gen. John H. Hawone and Formin second daughter of the Han. Nat. Wolfe.

IN MEMORIAM.

"Leaves have their time to fail,
And fivers to wither at its north wind's breath;
And stars to set—but all Thou hast all seasons for thina own—oh, Death!"

Died, as his residence, in Buillis county, Ry, on Sat-day evening, 3-pt. 36th, 186t, Wu. M. Howlary, in tha th year of his age.

was born in Bullitt county, where he r or called upon to chronicle a death whitemore hearts than does that of the subject to do the wilding above they claim one yet in the prior heart from Gods.

Green streets.

Green atreets.

A fine lot of Fre ch and atone them.

J. P. C.

SUPERIOR

LOCK STITCH

SEWING MACHINES.

UPWARDS OF

175,000

bands of God's falthful people must be loined OF THESE MACHINES ARE NOW IN SUCCESSFUL aperation in the United States, and the Company have together in an earnest and prayerful effort to restore the nulty of the Church. Now, whilst the chastening hand of our heavenly Father is have been followed, that entire and full satisfaction has upon us; now, whilst the ayes of the world ast been given.

WHEELER & WILSON'S SEWING MACHINES APP are jurned towards ns; now, whilst new cause they are the BEST. being made, let every Christian man and woman, in every Christian Church, put forth at once an effort to heal the breaches in Zion. Every Machine is Warranted for Three Years. Diversity no Disparagement to Unity.

> Customers risk nothing in purchasing, INSTRUC TION PREE! Call at our Sales Rooms, No. 1 Mason Temple, on Jan'erson street.

WM. SUMNER & CO., AGENTS nol3 deod,84w Notice to Painters.

but no want of unity. So in the stars that bespangle the beautiful concave of heaven-E REGULAR MONTHLY MEETING OF THE fourneymen Fainters' Glon will be held to mor-(Monday) evening, a Tradas, steembly Hail, on claspos, between Feerth and Fifth, at 7% o'clock, 387 W. NEWTON, Oor. Sedy. one siar differeth from another star in glory. yet there is no want of unity. Millions of worlds and systems of worlds, infinitely diversified in their magnitude, their e renits, and the Special Notice to City Boot periods of their revolutions, atter one har-Dealers. monious voice of praise to Him who made

WE ARE IN RECEIPT OF A SPLENDID LINE OFdent's fine Extra Calf Water-proof and Dress Nools; Officers' fine Grain and Enameled leg Boots; Boys' and Youth a Extra Copper-tin do; Suppose there existed no diversity in these myriad objects of nature; the eye would be-For sale at private sale by the case, by A. O. HENRY & CO., neil Sadi Nearly opposite Louisville (Total come tired of the cenerlees monotony, the clple of divine love have less power to hold TREES. the children of God together in harmony, than the principle of gravitation has to hold to-I HAVE ON MY PLACE, OPPOSITE THE Pair Grounds, about 10,000 choice Apple Trees, which I will warrant true to name. Also, a small lot of the best Cherry Trees, adapted it this locality, with a supply of fine Flowering Mrubs. have about 1,000 Evergreen Trees, the finest that can be found in this region, alt of which I will sell lower than nursery prices, in order to clear the ground. To par sons desiring to sell again, I will set; the above at the avy discount. gether la harmony the creatures and worlds of His natural Mogdom? No, the object of the establishment of the Kingdom of Grace, of which divine love is the central magnet and controlling power, is to "bring together in one the children of God scattered abroad." This J. THATCHER. heavenly magnet draws every believing heart GENTLEMEN, to the cross of Christ, and the nearer each heart is drawn to the cross, the nearer it is to DROWNED .- A soldier of Company K, Twenty-sixth Kentucky volunteers, named T HAVE ON HAND THE PINEST STOCK OF-Somnel Druen, accidentally fell overboard

Fruit and Ornamental

Genta' Boots, Shoes and Gaiters In the city, comprising in part the following articles

Gente's heavy doubte-soled French Caif Sewed Boots;
Do do do do do Pegged do;
Do do do do Sewed Baimorals or Gents's heavy deabie-soled French Pegged Baimorals or Arms show.
Also, all binds of fine single-soled Dress Boots or Congress Galters. Those in want will do well to give me a call as I inten sell goods chose, and of qualities surpassed by none l JOHN II. MERWIN, 328 Market st., bet. Third and Fourth, south side. nelS S&d

1864. NEW 1864. FALL AND WINTER SILVER-PLATED WARD—A full assortment at the Central House Furnishing Emporium, 213 coat side Fourth street, near Main, DRY GOODS

DCTABI

Market and Fourth Streets, Is now opening his stock of FALL AND WINTER GOODS, COMPRISING Rich Plaid Poplins; Rich Plaid Merinos; Rich Plaid Cloakings; Plain Poplins and Velours; Plain Delaines and Merinos; French Chintzes; Beal Manchester Ginghams; Ballardvale Flannels; 4-4 and 10-4 Shaker Flannels; French Shirting Flannels; Irish Linen and Bird Eye; Table Linens and Towelings; 4-4, 8-4 and 16-4 Heavy Shawls; Ladies' and Misses' Balmorals. Ladies' and Misses' Hosiery; Plaid Linsey and Jeans; Merino Underwear, all sizes.

Six Substitutes Wanted

W. TURNER, Agent.

At this office this morning. Apply no12 n&d2

UNDERTAKER HAS THE SOLE AGENCY IN LOUISVILLE FOR C. SHULEE'S METALLIO BURIAL CASES AND CASETY, and has for rain at his large and commodious rooms. No 300 south side of Jefferson streat, bet. Become and Third, every other variety of Metallic and Wooden Comma. He is gropared with new Hearne in Carriages to astend promptly to all only in his line. He seeps constantly on hand a complete assortment of Coffan Mountings and Trimmings. audit dood&bavijal

W. L. MURPHY, East side Third Street, near Main, Wholesale and retail dealer in the best quality of TTSBURG COAL. ORDERS BY RAILEOAD AND COUNTRY WAG-Taxes! Taxes!

WHO HAVE NOT PAID UP THEIR CITY was for the year 1884, are most carriedly request to see without delay, as the time has arrived for us in to advectice all delinquents. All these who save costs and networks, &c., will call of the city has northwest corner of Jefferson and Bixth the contract of the cont Hours from 9 to 11 o'clock a. M.
THIXTON & RAMMERS.

Louisville, November 7th, 1864.

Hay for Sale. HAVE ON CONSIGNMENT 30 TUNS OF BALED Hay, a lists with red top, that I will sell for all per 100 lbs, sold in lots to suit purchasers. Application to be made soon if you want theap Hay. Apply at W. P. HAHN EMMIT'S COLUMN.

TO BUYERS OF

DRY GOODS

GOOD PRINTS

Sprague's Prints At 35 cents per yard,

Merrimae Prints At 40 cents per yard.

Best Hamilton Canton Flannels

Fine 4-4 Bleached Cottons At 5) conts per yard.

Best Kid Gloves At #1 90 per pair.

Best N. Y. Mills Bleached Cottons At 65 cents per yard.

Ribbed Lamb Wool Hose At 75 cents per pair.

J. R. EMMIT & CO.'S. . Handsome Dress Goods.

AT

From Auction,

AT REDUCED PRICES. 386 is 700 yards rich PRINTED FRENCH MERI-NOS AND CASHMERES at $1 50 to $2; former prica $3 to $3 50, 763 is 1,200 yards handsoma PLAID POPLINS. war-

Lot 400 in rich FRENCH PLAID POPLINS, w ated all-wool, at #1 75, Lot 496 is extra rich HEAVY FRENCH POPLIN t #3 to 42 50. Lot 497 is all-woot PLAID CASHMERES at $1 25. Lot 421 to PLAIN COLORED ALPACAS at at to $1 M.

ranted all wool, at $1 25; former price $1

Lot 983 is PLAIN COLORED POPLIN ALPACAS at Lot 200 is BLACK ALPACA LUSTERS at 75 cents to et 30. Lot 38 is plain all-wood DELAINES. Lot 113 is PLAIN BLACK PARKS at 81 73 to 82. Lot tid is BLACK PRIZE MEDAL SILK at 42 63.

Lot 117 is GLOSSY HEAVY BLACK ZURICK SILK Lot 220 is BLACK REPT SILKS at $1, $2 50 and $2, Lot 367 is plain Blue, Brown, Tan, Leather, Purple and Mode SILKS at 42.

AT J. F. MMIT & CO.'S.

BARGAINS -IN-FREN H ERINOES

Wa have now in stock the best assoriment of French Merinocs Ever brought to this city, purchased at the Inte New York Auctions at a HKAVY DISCO, NF PROM THE COST OF IMPORTATION.

French Merinoes at $1 50; former price $2, French Merinoes at $2 and $2 25; former price $2 75 and $3.

We are now offering

Extra fine and wide French Merinoes at $2 50; former price $3 25. J. R. EMMIT & CO.

SHEETINGS, SHIRTINGS,

Irish Linens, Pillow Linens. Towelings, Shawls, Balmoral Skirts, Cotton Hosiery, Corsets, Linen Handkerchiefs; Woolen Hosiery, White Goods,

Domestics, Stirt Fronts,

Flanne's, Table Linens.

At reduced grices, AT J. R. EMMIT & CO.'S.

Ladies' Cloaking Cloths.

Black Cloaking Cloths, warranted all wool, at $5, $6, $7 and $8. Black American Beaver Cloths at $4 and Black Freuch Beaver Cloths at $8 and $9. Black Doeskin Cassimeres at $7 50 Black French Tricot Cloth at $8 and $9 Colored Ribbed all-wool Cloths at $5. Colored Melton Cloths at $5 to $8.

J. R. EMMIT & CO.

6-4 Plaid Flaunel Cloakings at $2 50 & $3.

GOODS

For Gents' and Boys' Wear. CLOTHS, CASSIMERES. Beaver Coatings

Purchased at a great decline, and now offered at 25 po We are now offering 6-4 Black Belgium all-wool Cloths at $5. 6-4 Black French Cloths at $6, $7, $8, $0, and $10.

6-4 American Beaver Cloth, for Overcoats, at $4 and $5. 6-4 Black Esquimaux Beaver Overcoating at $9 to $14. 3-4 Black French Tricot at $8 to $10.

6-4'col'd all-wool Melton Clothe at $5 to $3. 6-4 Gray Cloths (part cotton) at $3 to $4. 6-4 Black French Doeskin Cassimeres at $7 50 to $10, 3-4 Black Doeskin Cassimeres at $2 25 to $3. 6-4 Fancy French Cassimeres at $7 to $10.

6-4 Fancy Cassimeres at $2 50 to $6 Richardson's fine Jeans, Casinets, Tweeds. Country Jeans, &c.

J. R. EMMIT & CO.

ALL KINDS OF GOODS FOR NEGRO WEAR.

J. R. EMMIT & CO.

[From the Baten Rouge Comet.] There is a friend of ours at the Club, in Florida street, who has a fancy for all kinds of pets, especially for small dogs. With a sagacity common to dogs, they seem to know this, and when one of these serviceabis animals happens-In the confusion in cident to the times-to lose his master, or to be turned adrift on the charity of the world, because of the high price of beef-he makes his way round to the club, in Fiorida street, where G. at once collars him—that is to say, invests in a collar and adds one more dog to his retinus. A few days ago a very shabby specimen came to the door asked the other dogs if G. was at home and being answered in the affirmative walked in, stretched himself on the back piasza and made himself comfortable. When the club met in the evening, among other things, the new dog became the topic of their conversation. All the members averred that, in their varied experience and observation of dogs, they had seen nothing like this. Neither his maternal nor paternal parent could be agreed upon, and it was at length determined he mus be "s cross on several crosses." The front viaw of his face presented a scratch between the weasel and the wolf, with a monstachs, goatee and sids whiskers, such as Mr. Frank Leelie would put on a Broadway swell. Part of his shaggy coat has the map turned aft, and the other part leeward. Still it is well as nature has made it so, and very proper and serviceable no doubt. The dog his feels in no way responsible for it, and one of the wise points attained by nature in this is identity; he seems fully aware of the fact that he is not the first dog laughed at, and it is by his personal appearance he is known in a crowd or among other dogs in general. Has not every "man" some mark or mole whereby he is distinguished from other men? Yea, verily. What a sad world if all dogs and all men were in point of fact alike! Confusion itself would be confounded. The great could not be beparated from the small. The moral aspect of the thing, however, we leave for others, as we have no fit for moralizing now. What we want to say is this: The new dog walked out the other evening alone to take an airing and look at the "purlieus" of this interesting city. In Third street, soms middle-aged gentleman who had invested in a new brand of Christadoro's dye, and lesized to give the liquid a practical test before applying it to his own face, inveigled or rather wheedled G's new dog into a back room, took the collar off, and by an application of the villainous compound con-verted the dog into a regular striped hyena. After the elderly gentleman had tested the quality of his compound, he turned the dog loose to make tracks back to the club-room, in Florida street. Some of the smaller dogs eceing him coming, got frightened, lowered their caudal appendages and ran howling into the next street. The larger dogs, being braver and having just grounds to be so by virtue of superior strength, pitched Into painted animal, and, after making the fur fly, acknowledged themselves acquainted with him; members of the clnb came and kicked the nondescript ont; and it was not until G. himself walked in that any solution came. Hs at once recognized his lost pet-victimised by conspiracy. The animal was held to a glass that he might see himself as others see him. We need the poor dog was horrified, hardly say could with difficulty be restrained from aghting his own shalow, and has taken refuge under the house, where in seclusion he is no longer the subject of criticism. As soon as G. can find the elderly gentleman of Third street, it is his purpose to prosecute him unless he had a permit or authority for his barbarous conduct. THE HAT AND FEATHER MANIA .- Is there any sale for bonnets? There cannot be much, for at least five-eighths of the adorables appear in the strests arrayed in hat plume. The worst of the prevailing feshion is that it does not suit everybody If it improves youth and beauty it also renders the aged and unlovely disagreeably conspicuous. Sterne said that if it should rain miters they would all be misfits for him, and certainly a large number of the female heads one encounters in Broadway were not made for the saucy hats with which they are surmounted. Faded dowagers should eschew beavers, trimmed winglets of the parrots, macaws, flamingoes, scarlet iblses, highholders, and now."

gamechickens. Very short fat ladies, if we may be allowed to say so, don't look "killing" with little conical concerns, topped off with coster's tails, stuck on the crowns of their tomers have the best. heads. They remind one of dumpy candles reing put out by insufficient extinguishers. We might also hint, in a friendly way, if any one would insure our ears, that when ladies of a certain age wear their "back hair" ir scoop nets, it is Important to have it harmonise with the front ringlets to a shade. We fear some of the wigmakers are very unprincipled. When they sell half suits of hair, why don't they match the pattern? Our observations on the promenade assure us that they are sometimes very remiss in this particular. A lady can find the exact hue of her robe at the haberdasher's-why not the hue of her ringlets at the

There is one slight objection to flaring hats, to which our delicacy almost forbids us to call attention. It is this: they throng the sidewalks after nightfall, and, Indeed, we may say until after midnight. How-ever, as Dr. Watts thought it meet and proper that psalms and hymns should be set to profane song tunes, perhaps the fact that the fallen sisterbood wear the jauntlest hats in town is no reason why Virtue should not sport the same styles. Lucretia ls still Lucretia, though she may don the plumes of Lais. The only difficulty is that the similarity occasionally leads to unpleasant mistakes .- [N. Y. Sunday Times.

"THE GIFT OF THE GAB."-Sir Robert Peel on more than one occasion invited Mr. Stephenson to Drayton. He refused at first, from indisposition, to "mix in fine Fairfield, Maine. company," but ultimately went. On one occasion an animated discussion took place between himself and Dr. Buckland, on one of his favorite theories as to the formation of coal. But the result was that Dr. Buckland, a much greater master of tongue fence than Stephensen, completely silenced him. Next morning, before breakfast, when he was walking in the grounds, deeply pondering, Sir William Follett came up and asked him what he was thinking about. "Why, Sir William, I am thinking over that argument I had with Buckland last night. I know I am right, and that, if I had only the command of words which he has, I'd have beaten him." "Let me know all about lt," said Sir William, "and I'll see what I can do for you."

The two sat down in an arbor, when the astute lawyer made himself thoroughly acquainted with the points of the case, en-tering into it with all the zeal of an advocate t to plead the dearest interests of his t. After he had mastered the subject, Sir William rose up, rubbing his hands with glee. "Now I am ready for him." Sir Robert Peel was made acquainted with the plot, and adroitly introduced the sub-ject of the controversy after dinner. The result was that, in the argument that followed, the man of science was overcome by the man of law, and Sir William Follet had at all points the mastery over Dr. Buckland. What do you say, Mr. Stephenson?" asked Sir Robert, laughing. "Why," said he, "I will only say this: That, of all powers above and under the earth, there seems to me to be no power so great as the gift of gab.

[Men Who liave Risen. A young woman had been con verted at a camp-meeting. The minister had told her that, if she had falth, the Lord would give her whatever she would ask in prayer. Believing implicitly in his words, she one evening retired to a grove and fervently prayed the Lord to give her the milk, I went right straight and strained a man. It so happened that an owl sat up in one of the trees, and, being disturbed, gave out a who-o-o! She thought the Lord had heard her prayer, and only wished to know her choice. She was overjoyed, and, with the greatest thankfulness of spirit, answered back, "Anybody, Mr. Lord, just so

-The latest sweet thing is the Ileloise jacket An Abelard will probably come

-Trim your skirts, but don't gore, is the ashion-book's advice to ladies.

THINGS WISE AND OTHERWISE. and prepared for the Sueday Demo

BY "STAH." -The person who indited the following has oubtless, been badly disappointed at son

Thrice I have rang, and heard ye not,
My carriage at the door!
For I shall see my indy's face,
To-night, if never more.

My cloak, the air is growing cool; Come hastel now take the rein! You know the row; I'll see my love, To-night, if ne'er again.

Her hair in golden ringlets curls, Her eyes are very bright. Her face is fair as fair can be; I'll see that face to-night.

This is the door; down with the steps; How very long we've been! Madam, my card—"Your pardon, sir, The lady is not in!" -It isn't often we are forced to accept a kiss com a young lady, but we were obliged to take a 'bus on Msin atrest, yesterday.

-If you see a young man feeling his way brough life, loan him your lamp, if you can spare it.

-The young man who took sick got well. -The chap who "went up" for $90,000 in gold hasn't returned.

o it, Abe; you'll never ace it again. -The election in this State was like the bandle of a jug-all on one side. -The Confederates at Johnsonville shelled out liberally to our gunboatmen, and gave them several balls. Our boys danced at them. - It would be a good idea for Uncle Abram mount the negro soldiers on bulls-what the negroes wouldn't take the bulls could hook. - Women are like quack dectors, when they have no patients. - The chap who went out on a lark came back on a Shaughai.

- An Irishman stuffed his etockings full of stolen hay, and said it was put there for calves. - A train of nine cars ran off the track at switch a few days since. "A switch in time (didn't) eave nine" that time.

- The lady who was "lost in thought" has been found with the aid of a cearch warrant. - Negro bables are undoubledly colored

- Young ladles' checks are generally like ntesesting books-well re(s)1.

-Can a breas band play a joke? -An acceptance at sight-getting hit the eye.

-It a young lady give you her rings don't est them. -Song of a soldier who has had his leg and arm shot off-"Will you re-member me?" -Sometimes a lady's neck is a little bear night to make them wake carly in the morn--Young ladies, like postoffice clerks, don't

-Girls often tie their hair up in papers a like to be walting for the mails. -"The light of other days"-an old-fashned candle.

-It you sek a young lady to perform a piece of music for you and she asks you to "turn over" for her, don't do l'; you may break the furniture.

-A hard name for a post-Tom Ore. -Our officials put chaps in jull for getting tight, and Mr. Thomas keeps them tight until they are reicased. -The chap who got off on ball had picked up a bundle.

-When a young lady takes a seat in a chair, ain't it a set of furs! -Some one says "Little Mac's gone up.

-"Bill, why don': you get married?" "Ah, Jakey, there's war enough in the country

-The grocer who "keeps the best of groceries" ought to keep the worst and let his cus-

-The chap who was troubled for a "week back" isn't able to sit up.

BONNETS. "Of all the charms dear woman wears,
Of all her many traps and snares,
For real effect there's nanght compares
With a truly pretty bonnet;
For when and wherever you chance to meet
One that is perfectly modest and nest,
You may depend 'tin a proof complete
That the head has more in it than on it."

ROMANTIC CIRCUMSTANCE. - A young nan with a small family and a young and devoted wifs responded to the call of the Government, was examined and accepted, and while his papers were being prepared a younger brother appeared, and, learning that his brother was accepted, pressed his way into the examining room, was examined and accepted, and insisted on going as a substitute for his brother. Quita a scene ensued. The drafted mansaid he would go, and offered his brother $30 per month go, and offered his brother $30 per month of the Bonnie Bins Fiag."

Cincinnati, Nov. 12 and effects until his return, but the brother would not listen to it, but go he would, and the two brothers stood in tears, each insisting upon carrying his point. The no-blabar the reported evacuation and harming of Atlanta std the destinction of the Chattanoo-ga and Atlanta relirond.

BROTHERLY LOVE .- Were all Christlans to dwell on the virtues of their fellows-were they to talk of each other's excellencies and amiable traits, throw the vail of Christian charity over each other's little faults, how much more love there would be among the followers of Christ! How much more enjoyment among Christians! how much more success would attend the preaching of the truth! The example of Christians would then convince the world of the reality of religion, and the unanimous exclamation of the world would be "See how these Christians love." Christians then would be one, and the world would know how to be followers of Christ. Then let us love one another, and be more anxious to see in each other aomething of the of each other's faults. WANTED-One hundred men, with big ticks and generally numerciful dispositions, to plant themselves at each of the egresses of our theaters, a few moments be-fore the close of each night's performance and satisfactorily beat, mangle, knock down and otherwise mutilate the horde of lll-mannerly people, male and female, who make an invariable rule of jumping up and running out about one minute before the conclusion, thus preventing all who remain rom either seeing or hearing. Good salarles will be given. Apply at the box-offices of any of the theaters.

likeness of Christ, than to notice and talk

THE WRONG House.—"Madam," said a polite traveler to a testy old landlady, "if I see proper to help myself to this milk, is there any impropriety in it?" "I don't know what you mean; but if you mean to insinuate that there is anything nasty in that milk, I'll give you to understand that you've struck the wrong house. There ain' the first halr in it, for as soon as Dorothy Ann told me that the cat was drowned in

"It is my misfortnne," esys Lord yttelton in a letter to the London Times, "that whatever I say in public is always turned into nonsense by the reporters. It is my own fault, from speaking too rapldly

M. Enfantin, a French socialist, lately deceased, left $90,000 in gold to his -The wife's motto-grievances and babies were both made to be nursed.

TELEGRAPHIC.

TESTERDAY'S NOON DISPATCHES. The Rebels Attempting to Flank Sheridan.

The Rebels in Force at Staunton, Intended Movement on our Lines Late Intelligence from Little Rock. Large Capture from the Rebels Gunboats Waiting for Rebel Rams Southern Currency not Used

Texas. Rumored Movement of Grant on Wilmington.

Atlanta not Evacuated and Burned. A Teast of Maximidan's Officer. -"Lay up your treasure in Heavea." Don't Late frem the Shenandeah Valley. Sheridan's Army in the Neighborhand of Winchester,

> No Active Military Operations. Large Experis of Specie to Europe,

NEW YORK, Nov. 12

The Herald's Washington special says inform ation has been received that the rebels in the Shenardosh Valley, having been re-enforced, are attempting to fluck the position of Sheri dan, in order, at least, to threaten Pennsylvania and Maryland with another lavasion.

Sheridan is however, presented for them. Sheridan is, however, prepared for them having on Wedneday last given marching orders. The army is in the finest and most efficient condition.

Our dispatches from the front represent the the rebels were, some days ago, la force at Stannton, and it was their intention to move n our lines at ones.

Forty of Moseby's guerrilitis, all diagnis in our uniform, yesterday morning attacked, near Charlestown, a small train belonging to Shoridan's army, guided by a serucent and ten men, only three of whom escaped.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12. We learn from Little Rock that Captala White, of Steele's army, on the 23d leat, ofter a hard fight of four hours, captured an entire rebel train of thirty-five wagons, 200 houses, $11,000 in money, and scattered to the monn-teluthe force accompanying this train, which had probably been exit shead of the main portion of his retreating army by Price, with the design of saving it. The Richmond Sentivel, of Wednesday inst, saya a large floot of Union gunboats and fron-clads ara in the James river, below Dutch

Oup.

It also says that the Un'on soldiers are not making any preparations for winter quar-ers, and that it is rumored that Grant con-empiates a movement on Wilmington by way of Weldon, and that he is already sending troops to the latter place.

The Horald's New Orleans correspondent says our gunboats were watching, at the month of the Red river, for three formidable rebel rams, which were expected to come down as soon as the water should rise suffi-Jeff. Davis' currency has been almost en lrely set aside by the rebels of Texus, only gold and silver being accepted.

One hundred and flfty car loads of cotton, belonging to private parties, destined for Mexico, have been stopped at Galind, Texas, by order of the rebel General Kirby Smith, oly sh'pments on the rebel Government a some people of New Ocieans had protested to Gen. Hardbart against their caroliment for

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.

Late Richmond papers contain the proceed ings of the rabel Congress.
The Judiciary Committee were directed to inquire into the expediency of requiring citi-zens liable to military duty, absent from their country, not on public business, to return and assist is the public delense, under pain of con-fiscation of their property and distranchise-ment after the way.

ment alter the war. Mr. Foote, of Mississippi, introduced and spoks in support of a relief, esserting it nunccessary and inexpedient at present to arm the slaves; but he said that in case the white element amould become exhanated, he would hen isvor the proposition to make addlers of the negroes.

The North Carolina papers state that Washngion, in that State, has been evacuated by the rebal troops.

NEW YORK, NOV. 11. The Herald has disputches from Matamoras, Moxico, cated 27th ul.

Cornes, iste Republican Governor of the place, having become an Imperialist, has be neen ton an expedition stere his brother, who is at the head of a band of gnerrillas

President Justice that Chihushas with 12,— 000 troops, and is said to be fortifying the piace with the determination of standing is the third son of the family now in the U.

S. service—two being in the 1st Maine Cavalry, and having already a noble record in their country's history. The name of the substitute is Frederick M. Halner of Park.

Washtneron, Nov. 12.

A gentleman from the Valey to day stales that the larger part of Sheridan's army is in the neighborhood of Winchester, while the commy are at Newmarket receiving re-enforcements there.

There have the valey to day stales that the larger part of Sheridan's army is in the neighborhood of Winchester, while the commy are at Newmarket receiving re-enforcements there.

The steamer City of Washington sailed to-day for Liver pool with $700 600 in specie.

The Georgian sailed for Southampton with $43,000 in specie.

CINCINKATI, Nov. 12. River risen 5 inches—19 test 6 inches in the channel. Weather cludy. Thermometer 40; barometer 29:20 Some rain last night—light snow at intervals this morning. Mr. Yestman, President of the Sanitary mission, has just received the following letter from General Sherman, which contains a significant hint as to the present movement of our army: GAYLESVILLE, ALA., Oct. 25, 1964 James E. Fealman, President, &c.

DEAR SIR: I thank you for the prompt fulfillment of the request to send certain articles for our prisoners at Andersonville. have changed slace, and I may have to go in percon to deliver these articles to the prison-ers. In the meantime I will hold them for that purpase, I can make no use of maney for their benefit, and beg you to use it in your With respect, yours, Az., Wm. T. STERMAN. Last Monday night considerable excise ent prevalled in Jeffersonville -ver reports that a number of alrangers were la the town, and the incendisty terch would 'a applied to Government buildings. Extra details of sol diers were made to atand sentry over all of the warehouses used by the Government. Twenty-four men were sent to guard the powder megazine. During the heary thunderstorm that night one of the soldiers. George Myers, was atruck by lightning and rendered

The St. Louis Republican of the Ilth

A CAMARD.—The report which comes to us by way of New York, in the telegraphic col-ums, of as attack on Morgozz, and the cap-ture of 1,900 prisoners, is a canard, without any foundation whatever. There is a gentle-man is this city who was at Morgozz three or four days after the capture is said to have occurred, and he never heard of anything of the kind.

averlasting loan of a house, gun, watch and other articles of valua. Sometimes a man goes along to see that they keep their word and the things too.

Two consins were arrested a few days since in Baltimore, charged with spealing $10, 000 from a hote! In Cincippati.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

From the Army of the Potemac, Rebeis Attempt to break our Lines, Thanksgiving Dinner for Soldiers, The Capture of Plymouth, N. C.

Complete Stampede of the Garrison. Later from the Tennessee River. Seven Gunbrais Arrive at Paducah Gen. Forrest Cone to Rejoin Hood.

The Presidential Vote in Memphis. Conspiracy at the Brooklyn Jail.

Lincola's Election. Gan, Hood said to be Marching on Chattanosga.

Later Intelligence from Europe. Opinions of the English Press on the Capture of the Florida. Gold Closed in New York at 242 1-8,

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC,) November 11. On Wednesday evening, about seven o'clock, a force of the cremy were discovered massing in front of our live, when the guas of the fort opened fire, driving them to their works. The rebel batteries replied hriskly for a time, but were soon silenced by our shells and morrars. A force of about one hundred and firty rebels.

A force of about one hundred and first rebela abority afterwards made a cortic from their lines and strempted to prostrate our lines, but being met by a salute from our pickets, were not long fielding their way hack and putting themselves under cover. As the enemy seem determined to pursus the policy of shooting at every man, so our men are forced to runif-ste accordingly.

The pickets in front of the Second corps were briefly energed most of last might, and wera briskly engaged most of last night, and reports of masketry at times continuous. This morning all is quick.

This morning all is quiet.

The commissioners and agents from Philadelphia, ar cated on the charge of issuing incorrectly printed blanks and and tally lists, have been ordered to Washington for examination by the Secretary of Wer. They start this marriage. W. D. McGurgor. [Signed]

BALTIMORE, Nov. 13 The American cas a disputch, cated R an eke Island, 21 luntant, wherein, after giving an account of the destruction of the rebel ram emarie, by the brave Lieutenaut Cushing the writer give the following account of the recapture of Plymouth, North Carolina, by our navy and the final result. The bold movement of Lieuterant Cushing accomplished a great deal and was the came of ra-lieving a number of good loyal men from dis-trees sub-tarvation. After this was done tha fleet, under commander W. H. Macomb, and needed up the river within a short distant proceeded up the river within a short distance of the town, when obstructions were found. After exchanging a few chots the flost returned. On Sunday (30th uit.) the flost proceeded to Ronnoke river, through Middle river, shove the town and shelled Plymouth with telling effect. On Monday morning commander Macomb, steamed down the river, followed by the remainder of the flost, and while passing opposite the town, gave the rebels whell, grape and cannister to their heart's content.

count being permitted.

Some people of New Orieans had protested to Gen. Hardbart agents their caroliment for duty as soldiers.

Torpedoes have been placed in the Missis-sip; along the Lonisians shores, by the rebels, but they will soon be removed.

From Mobile there is not the news. Our gan-boats make experiments in shelling the city. ogether with a large quantity of small arma.
The road leading out of it, as far as we have been, was strowe with muskets, haversacks, At , showing that the rebels hade made a complete simple. The whole garrison did not have stores enough to inat them twentyon hours. In the cogagement one of the rebel magrgines was blown up by our guns, and its ex-plorion set fire to the lown. All the buildings on Waier street were d stroped. The town is now held by our gusboats and a small land force commanded by Colonel Wardras. Glory force commanded by Colonel Wardras. Glory to Cashing for so brave an act, and glory to commitader Macomb for following it up and relieving a large portion of North Carolina. A telegram was given us by Lieutenant Langworth, who has been in the town and is theroughly sequainted with all the incidents of its expure. Wa learn that nine of the men who accompanied Lieutenant Cushing, are prisoners, together with Paymaster Swann, who was wounded in the shoulder. Masterwho was wounded in the shoulder. Master-Woodman, who was also one of tha party, is killed. CAIRO, Nov. 12. Advices from Padumah to the 9th east that seven gamboats have arrived there from Johnsonvilla.

At 5 o'clock the evening before they report that the rebels had disappeared from this sue of Johnsonville, and no part of Forrest's army in believed to be on the east alds of the river, they having gone, it is believed to join Hood. General Schoolid, with 1500 troops, has arrived at Johnsonville, and that place is recarded as asfe.

The Tenessee river will alon be open again.
A termado passed over Weehington county, Ky, on the morning of the 9-h, desiroying many buildings, k'iling one person and wounding several others.
The district of West Kontucky has given a

The district of West Kertucky has given a majority for Lincole—one of the greatest ceners in public opinion in any part of the United States.

Memphis papers of the 10th say that the vote of Memphis gives Lincoln 1,604 and McClellan 2 633, which is informed and rejected. Datachments at Missouri, Ohio, Pennsylvanie, Iows and Wilconsin regiments give large Lincoln majorities. The 8 x h Tennes see cavalry gave a manimons vote of 550 for Lincoln.

Stramers from below bring 460 bales cotton for St. Louis. CAPE RACE, NOV. 12.

Biblis by the Keassace and Weachnsta.

The Loadon Herald editorisity denounces the capture of the Florida in indignant terms.

The Loadon Times says that the capture of the Florida in the harbor of a friendly state was an act of simple platey. When within a neutral port she should have been periectly asfe from molestation.

The Liraid says that if the Washington Government does not release the Florida sit the maratime powers have the right to interfere in the maiter. fero in the matter.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13. NEW YORK, Nov. 12.
The report of the rebel Secretary of the Treasmy is published. Mr. Fenholm says that a large issue of treasury notes is to be reflitted from the isliure of measures relied on to sustain their value and reduce the expenditures. The new notes are received by the public at a value secreely higher than the old, and as a correquence the expenses have not declined. The currency demands the immediate and gravest consideration of Congress, and nalest a sufferm and staple value can be given to tressury notes, efforts to carry on the wer instrumentally must necessarily be abactored. Acquirectuce in its depotable depreciation is to court the rain to deplorable depreciation is to court the rain to which it leads. One hundred and thirty-five dalars in curreacy price abtained for one hundred dollars in 6 per cent bonds, are equal to six dollars only in specie.

r four days after the capture is said to have coursed, and he never heard of anything of and dezires direct tax levies upon the peoule, and dezires direct tax levies upon the peoule, payable partly in cosh and partly in cosh and partly in cosh and decided weakers of reform are adapted, our embarrasaments will become lasuremonaterial to the partners of a house can watch and able.

I would earnestly arge upon Congress the necessity of action with dispatch and by the adaption of vigorous and decid measures, restore the value of the currency and avoid the amily with which we are threatened. NEW YORK, Nov. 12

A committee consisting of some of the leading merchants and citizens here been appointing for Lincoln.

HARRIBGERO, Nov. 12.

Estimates made here returned a confect and 10,000 majority for Lincoln.

ed to carry out the proposition to farnish sol-diers and satiors a thanksgiving dinner, ap-peal to the people of the Narth to Join in their peal to the people of the Narth to Join in their ribrts. They ask for cooked poultry and other proper meats, as well as mince ples, sourages and fruits. But if any one is so alterated as not to be able to cook, poultry or meats will be received uncooked. What is sout should be wrapped in white paper, boxed and addressed to George W. Blunt, Getty's Building, Trinity Piace, New York. If uncooked, they should he so marked ontside, and a list of the contents accompany the box. Building, Trinity Piace, New York. If ne-cooked, they should be so marked ontside, and a list of the contents accompany the box. Nothing should be sent cooked prior to Nov. 14th. Uncooked positry or mest should reach New York on or before the 14th of November. Contributions in money should be sent to T. Rosevsit, Tressury No. 84, Maiden Lane. Express compunies have generously offered to transmit all contributions free of charge. Further Details of the Naval Battle,

> The Herald's Torth army corns special says The literald's feeth army corns special says the following is Lincoln's majority in the voling on Tuesday:
>
> Tenth corps, 1,034; Eighteenth corps, 1,436; Kanu's exviry, 185; regiments on detached service, 253; Signal corps, 24. Total majority for Lincoln in the Army of the James, 3,704. The Hersid's special from Sharidan says rabel ploketa are stationed at Edinburg, a small place up the valley above Winstock. mail place up the valley, above Winstock The rebel General Rosser, with a small pres of cavalry is stationed at the same The re-enforcements Early is to receive in tuture is a matter of cotjecture. It is quite well escertained that he has only been receiving returned couvsiescents and stragglers. The campaign in the valley is at an end. Tha rebels have no fresh troops to make demonstrations. Richmond Papers Excited over Mr. The World's Twentleth corps correspond-en', with Sheridan, says active movements is that locality may be looked for soon. NEW YORK, Nov. 13.

In the erasion of the rebei ! Congress yester-ay, Mr. Foote of Tennessee, opposed the ming of slaves and concluded with resoluavening of staves and concluded with resolu-tions, offirming that it was necessary to have a Convention of the States before any attempt at conferring emuncipation by the Confederate authorities. In response to some isquiries Mr. Foote said he was in favor of a Conven-Mr. Foote said he was in lavor of a Conven-tion of the Confederate States to sid the Con-federate suiborities in adjoining terms of peace. We had, ha said, more friends in the North than we had in either Eagland or France, willing on the recognition of our la-France, withing on the recognition of our in-dependence to enter into an alliance offancive and defensive with the Northern Sistes jointly to enforce ithe Mouros doctrine in America and form a liberal commercial treaty. With this alliance British enthority would be swept out of Canada, and French domain in Mexico would be overturned.

NEW YORK, NOV. 12. The Commercial's Washington letter says hat well informed military men are sanguine of success, and declare that his army will reep down towards Atlanta without him-drance.

The unvel expedition which has waited cearly two months, is likely to start soon.

The sword of Captain Morris, of the Florida, has been received at the Navy Department. It is of English mannfacture, crowned with a lion's head, and bearing the rose, this ide and shamrock on the hilt and hisde, with the Confederate flux.

Reston appears described the recention of the Confederate flux.

Boston papers describe the reception of Captain Winelow, of the Kearsarge, as a very brilliant affair. A compilmentary dinner is to be given him on Tuesday. NEW YORK, Nov. 12. The Milledgeville Recorder says: "We re or that the papers in consequence of the consequence of the States to suthorize each or inself, to make the best bargains it can with lacely for a cassalton of hostilities.

"We regard this exceedingly important. It is a l direct confession of weakness in the is an 1 direct confession of weakness in the Confederacy, most hurtful to the conse, and is calculated to exert an unbappy influence in our struggle for autional independence.

"The proposition at this gloomy juncture of reverses in Georgia implies abandonment of all hope of ultimate success, and in this respect is very objectionable. We are in the fight, and must carry it on to the end."

NEW YORK, NOV. 12. The World this morning acknowledges the elect of Seymonr, and says:
We have lost one the State both on the elecral vote and for Governor, and every addiusi return makes matters worse-a majori on the wrong side; but enough.
The World says that General McClellan ten hered his resignation on the S.b., and asked hat it might be dated from that day. The iron olad, Dictator, made a trial irip

NEW YORK, Nov. 12, The Tribune's Weshington special says les. Buke it is said is soon to take command of the Navy Department. The committee for the National Saller's alr baring expressed to the department the ellef that considerable sums may be realized rom the curiosity to see the Kausege, now Beston harbor, orders were laund to day olac ug her at their disposal for exhibition during the fair.

Lord Lyons is lying very ill with typhoid fever at his residence in this clay. Apprehentions are felt that he will not recover.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12. The prize steamer Lidy Strong, which arrived last evening, was built in London and meched about four mouths ago. She is Iron, 63 tone, and had on board when captured the strong of the 40 000 ponnds of cotton and four tons of to Sie was seen by the steamer Evins ender was seen by the steamer Evins ender when the steamer Evins and three oring to escape her, but after a chase of three hours she surrendered to the Carpposa. She was in a disabled condition before starting from Wilmington, one cylinder being necless notwithstanding this she madathree miles particles.

A complimey to break from the Brooklyn

A conspiracy to break from the Brooklyn jull has been discovered, in which death to sil who stood in the way was to be indicted. The leaders are named Yates and Khney.
The Post's Washington special sars:
Richmond papers of Thursday are greatly excited over Lincoln's election.
Hand as said to be marching on Chattanoogs, and the rebels are confident that Grant is remarking for another hattle.

paring for another battle.
The rebel journals elmost nuanimously cen-ours the seming of aegroes. WASHINGTON, Nov. 13. Louden county, Va., la overran with guer-ilias, who commit many depre-istions upon recentile ettimas. Not long ago one hundred and filly of them dashed across the Petumac at Nathan's Ferry, five miles from Point of Barks, and reached the Bultimora and Orio railroad. They reibbed some storthoness. &c., and were in the act of tearing up rails and detroying the telegraph when the Landon men proof about them. A warm encacement en-med, and the miders lost two killed, saveral wounded and six taken prisoners. CAPE RACE, Nov. 12.

The steemer Nova Scotia from Liverpool on the 2d, via Loudondery the 4th inst, has passed the point for Qasbee. Her dates are threa days later.

The Jura, from Quebec, arrived off the month of the river Mensey on the lat lastant, where she ran asbore, parted smidships and became a wreck. Her mails, passengers and crew were landed saiely.

The Liverpool cotton market opened with an advancing inmency, but closed decilialeg. Breadetests steady.

It was stated that the steamer Lanta, from Liverpool has transferred the crew, arms and armonition to the steamer New Alabama, off Madelra.

The Loddon Herali editorially denounces the capture of the Florida in indigment terms.

Aletter from Matamorea says when General Wills was known to be advancing on the city, and within a day's march, most foreigners concluded the protection of their respective concluded by Corthans and permitted to deliver cartificates of rebel nationality.

Aletter from Matamorea says when General Wills was known to be advancing on the city, and within a day's march, most foreigners concluded by Corthans and permitted to deliver cartificates of rebel nationality.

The Loadon Herali editorially denounces the capture of the Florida in indigment terms. Admiral Porter, writing to the Navy Department, under date of Navember 10, says some regulars. AUSTSTA, Me., Nov. 12.

Two hundred and twenty-five towns give decale 47,423, McClellan 30,307. The same Lincoln 47,423, McClellan 30,307 The same towns in September give Cory 45,618; Howard 30,110 The remainder of the Siste will not vary materially from this majority. As thirty thousand votes are yet to be heard from which are all in equally divided between the two. Idealn's majority will be nearly 15,000 on the home vote, with 5,000 to 7,000 on the solclers vote. NEW YORK, NOV. 12.

Gald weak and lower, the speculative move-ment being feeble. Quotations range from 243 to 245, closing weak at 243.

The Commercial's Weshington special says that Sheridan handsomely checkmated the moves on our flack. He has sent them back from the advance on the B. & O. R. R. The perfective will be sent about articulars will be sent soon. NEW YORK, NOV. 13.

The Commercial's Washington special says tha Treasn y Department will anticipate the payment of the January interest on the Government bonds.

The rebel authorities have made proposition to our government, asking leave to purch as blankets in the Northern cities for their releases, paying therefore, in contrast. riso ers, paying therefor in cotton. The acution is under advisement.

The Evening Journal has returns from all but four small counties in Itlinois, which foot up majorities for Lincoln of 30,000, and a Union majority of 15 ou a joint ballst in the Legislature, and the election of 11 Congressmen out of it; a Union gale. The name paper has assertance that all the Union Congressmen elected in lows.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12. It is officially announced that efficiency o the ermy in the field requires that furloughs of all regimental officers and sulfated men from duty terminate on the lith last. Provost Marshal's are required to take measures to have such officers and soldiers returned to their proper commends. heir proper commands.

ST. LOUIS, NOV. 12. Dispatches from the Pacific coast, dated the 9th, in the 8t Joseph papers, any that San Francisco gives Lincoln 5,000 majority. It is estimated that California will give Lincoln 25 000 majority. Nevada and Oregon are both claimed for Lincoln by 3,000 majority.

Lientenant Cushing, the hero of the Albs male effulr was serenaded at the Syracus-liotel this evening. A large number of citi-zens joined in the compliment.

The steamer Amelia, from Chicago with 16,000 bushels of cora, is ashore 40 miles north of Goderich, and is likely to be a total London, C. W., Nov. 12, The North Branch Mills and Wooten-Facto-y was burned just niggal. Loss $13,000; they ere mostly insured. New York, Nov. 12. The appropriations of last Congress exceed $735,000, not including interest on the published.

R'ver seven feet six inches. Weether coid,

PITTSBURG, Nov 12.

with indications of snow. From Johnsonville, Tenn -Arrival of General Schofield-Porrest Goge to Join Hood. [Correspondence of the Cairo Democrat.] PADECAH, KY., Nov. 9, 1964.

PADUCAR, Kr., Nov. 9, 1964.

Seven gunboats arrived here to-day from Johnsonville, which place they left yesterday afternoon at five o'elock. They report that all signs of rebel occupancy this side of John sonville has disappeared; Forrest's army having gone, no one knows where. Gen. Schoffeld, with sems afteen thousand troops, had arrived at Johnsonville, and the place was considered perfectly secure. No part of Forrest's force are thought to be promite east. rest's force are thought to be upon the east side of the river, but it is the general belief that he has gons to join Hood. The Tannessee river will soon be opened ow, and trade will probably this week be esumed in Padneth.

Paris, Ky., was greatly scared up on Monday last. It being court day, the town was full of people. The guerrillas were reported to be hovering shout the suburbs for the purpose of an attack. The excitement grew intense. Pickets were thrown out on the roads, liorses were pressed and soldiers monnted, and nobody was permitted to leave the tows. The enemy did not make his ap. pearence, and towards evening the roads were pened and the constrymen made a general tampede for their horses, Joe Cobnen, the prix - fighter, his re arned to America.

RIVER MATTERS.

ARRIVED .- Gen. Lytle, from Cincinnati; Majo aderson, from Cincinnati; S. B. Young, from Madison; Morning Star, from Henderson; Willie amage, from Cincinnati.

DEPARTED .- Gen. Lytle, for Cincinnati; Major derson, for Cincianati; S. B. Young, for Madion; Morning Star, for Henderson; Ontario, fo ittsburg; Yorktown, for Pittsburg. -The river is still swelling at this point, but not is fast as on the two previous days. During ves-rday morning it was rising quite fast, but in the vening the rise was checked, and it would not surrise us if it would come to a stand to-day. I ne canal last svening by the mark there was fully eleven feet water. In the Indian chute on the fall there was nine feet water, or fully eight feet ove he rocks. In the middle chute there was six and a half feet water for ascending steamers, and the lenderson packet Morning Star came to the city wharf to receive and discharge her eargo. The rise at the head of the fails during the previou wenty-four hours was elx inches. The weather was clear and pleasant,

-Our latest advices from Plitsburg state that the Ohio at that point was still stationary, with Daily Review of the Louisville Market. ine feet water in the channel by the pier mark. -At Cincinnati at noon yestarday the river was etill swelling, with nineteen feet six inches water in the channel hence to this place. It had been aining there during Friday morning and evening. with light snow at intervals.

-The Lower Ohio is rising fast all the way t fairo, and the general impression among boatme e that wa will have a good river during the balance of the season.

-We learn that the Kentucky river is rising, with over ave feet water from Oregon to th -The Tonnessee river is rising, with over eigh et weter in the channel. -The new General Bueil is the regular mai nd passenger packet for Cincinnatt and the East day. She will leave the wharf at 11 o'clock, harge of careful and conrigons boatmen. -It is with feelings of regret that we anno he death of Captain Wm. H. Byington. He died at his residence, in Cincinnati, about 5 o'clock Priday evening, after a short but painful illnessin the fifty-seventh year of his age. Captain Bying ton was a quiet, nuasauming, upright, honorable man, and enjoyed the unlimited confidence of all who knew him intimately. He had been steamboat clerking on the Ohio river for over thirty years, having been constantly engaged with the Cincinnati and Louisvilla Mail Company during the past twenty-three years. A few months since we reorded the death of Mr. Dunning, one of the veta ans of the same line. -The beautiful and fleet little Willie Gamage ar lved from Cincinnati yesterday with a full load of rernment freight. She will return to Cincin nati to-morrow even.ng. The Willie Gamage. set profitable to her owners. She is one of the most complete low water packets on the Ohio,

-Tha Tigrees, with tan barges of coal for points elow, was due last evening, but had not arrive up to the time we left the wharf.

-Captain Frank Hurry has resigned the comand of the steamer J. T. McCombs, and she will hereafter be under the command of John Bernard. veteras boatman. The McCombs was loading at effereenville yesterday with Government freight -The Freestone, formerly a Loniaville and Madion packet, has gone to Mound City for repairs She has just been discharged from Government service. Captain Leslie Brown commands, and Mr. John T. Brown is clerk. We regret to learn that the former, by falling through a hatch several ttention from the surgeons of the Red Rover, and le now doing comparatively well. -The Columbia left St. Louis Thursday for Pitta--Captain Europe Bowers' new boat, the Peytons

ne of the finest built in the West for some time days ago, distocated his left shoulder. He received will be at the city wharf this morning. She leave for the Crescent City to-morrow afternoon. -The following are the rates of freight fr this city: TO NEW OBLEANS. es, &c., per bbl.

TO NASHVILLE, ind freight per 100 iba. isky, beer sad oil per b nr, apples, &c, per bbl -We find the following items in the Nashville. Prese of yesterday: The Cumberland at this point yesterday was at a

The Nashville. Amarica and several other boats are expected to day.

The steamer direy Eagle, in going from the Upper to the Lower landing yesterday met with an accident. Just before reaching the railroad bridge the boat took a cheer on the pilot and struck the uniddle pier in her passage through, carrying away her water wheel, beams and gallowe frame, and a certion of her guards from forward of the cookbone to the after part of her wheel-house. No blame is attached to the pilot by Captain Evans, in command of the boat. The accident was, to all observers (alsemboat men), mayoridable.

-We copy the following river items from the St. Louis Union of Friday afternoon: When the Emma was captured and runk in Red river the greater part of her crew were captured and taken to bareveport as prisoners. The mate, Mr. John Price, recently seemed and returned to this port, and, strange to age, makes a demand on Captain Alken, the commander of the boat, for his

aptain Aiken of course refuses to pay, and a law uit will probably be the result, which will be omewhat of a novel affair. We remember severa ecisions of our conta, to the effect that whenever boat sinks all wages and liabilities cease, which seems to be a just and equitable view of the mat

A large number of boats were conscripted yeards for Government acrylca. Among them are as Minnshabs, War Engle, Post Boy, Prairie State and Win. L. Ewing. They are going to Jefferson lity, from which point it is supposed they will go slow. below.

The new Sam Gaty and Bart. Able were also taken, but subsequently released. The former is loading for the Missouri river and the latter for New Orleans, both leaving this evening without fall.

The Luminary, of the Atlantic and Mississippl Steamship Line, will commonce loading to-day, and she leaves Sunday morning.

TERRIBLA STEAMBOAT EXPLOSION AND LOSS OF LIPE.—The St. Panl (Minn.) Proce of the 5th gives the following account of the explosion of the ilers of the steamboat John Rumsey:

the following account of the explosion of the bollers of the steamboat John Rumsey:

Probably the most terrible accident which ever occurred here took place in the river just below the leves at 3 o'clock vesterday afternoon.

Two freight boats, the John Rumsey and the Albany, were coming up the river, each towing two harges of freight. As they turned the bend, just below the city, the Albany was a little in advance, but, the Rumsey being the fastest, came along beside the Albany, and they ran in that way until they were a few rods below our leves, and almost directly in front of the West St. Hotel, when the boiler of the Rumsey exploded, making a total wreck of the boat. She immediately took fire and sank rapidly in six feet of water. Within ten or afteen minnies the fames destroyed all of the boat not covered by water.

The starboard boiler deck of the Albany was considerably shattered, but beyond that no earlons damage was done to the boat. She put back as soon as possible to the wrack, but as that was on free, and she was encumbered with two harres, she was numble to renier any assistance, and came up to the leves with her freight.

The Mollie Mohler, which was lying at the wharf boat, ran down to the wreck immediately, and brought in the barges which he Rumsey bad in tow and a portion of the crew which survived.

The careful inqury, we can ascertain positively of the wash of hut five. Two others are missing, one of whom is supposed to be drowned and the other to have been killed.

The pilot, Mr. Weylamin, had a most miraculous accape. The whole pilot-house was blown into the sir, and he accompanied it so high that he says he thought he should finer come down again. He landed, however, safely in the wreck, without having removed his hand from the wheel during his arrial voyage. He is unable to discover that he is injured in any way.

—The following we find in the Wheeling Intelligence:

-The following we find in the Wheeling Intelliconsiderable excitement has prevailed on the landing for a couple of days in the vicinity of the landing for a couple of days in the vicinity of the landing for a couple of days in the vicinity of the landing for a couple of days in the vicinity of the eleamer St. Johns, in consequence of a legal difficulty in respect to some railroad from. It appears, from the most reliable information that we can gather, that some six months ago the Baitimore and Ohio Railroad Company contracted with the Mesers. Whittaker, of the Crescent Iron Works, for about $20,000 worth of railroad from. When the contract was concluded on the part of the Whittakers, the railroad company declined, for some reason, to receive the Iron, or at least to pay for it. Subsequently the Whittakers sold the Iron to the Ohio and Missinsippi Railroad Company, and while it was being put aboard the steamer St. Johns on Monday, the Baltimore and Ohio Company send out an injunction prohibiting the steamer from laking any more of the iron on board, and anthorian githe company to take possession of it. The Sheriff served he process, and soon afterward several draws and a large number of workmen, comployed by the company, appeared and proceeded to remove the iron. A number of the emptoyees of the boat, of the company and the Iron works, had assembled, and considerable feeling was manifested in the vicinity of the boat. For some time it was fearful that a riot might result, and the sheriff went to the boat to prevent or quell any outbreak. During Menday night a dispatch was received from General Keiley, informing the Messra. Whittaker that the Government must have the iron for the repair of the Baltimore and Ohlo railroad, as a military necessity. This put a new face apon the transcion, and at the instance of the officers and owners of the St. Johns, a process was issued to compet the Baltimore and Ohlo Company to pay the freight apon the iron, which the steamer had already been at some two or three hundred dollars expense in handling. It was payoned yesterda

FINANCE AND TRADE

OFFICE OF THE LOUISVILLE DEMOCRAT. By the noon atvices to the Bo rd of Trade to day.

Certificates were 9514. Rio Coffee unch anged at 46%c. Sugar firm, Oction 61 40. Flour declining. Mixed Corn 2@3c better.

Fouchers are still very du'l at 10 per cont. discount. For particulars of currency matters see Specie an

FLOUR-The Flour market is uncharged. The sales in a small way are at 69 for extra, 60 75@10 50 extra family; fancy branda 611@12. Superfine we quite at 68 30@8 90. ales 500 bbls extra famlly at $10, and 300 bbls at $10 20 WHEAT-Receipts are fair and prices are uncha-Mediterranean and Alabama red bring 93-32 to white 62 10@2 15.

Coas—ta without change. Dealers continue to pay $1 15:01 20. Sales from ctore at $1 40, an : at retail $1 0 Oars, &c-Cate firm at 70275c. Eye $1 1531 25. Barley $1 75G1 55. @1 50, New comman to 90c@ 01. Burran-Western Reserve in firking commands 440 163. The retal's rate varies from 50c to 60c, Cruras Western Reserve commands 20c, and Ohio

Hamburg 31c, with a fair stock, Ecos—Are higher and in demand at 20@ "So by the bbl.
FLAE SE2D—Sales at 92 10 Gnockine-Moderate sales N. O. Sugar at 23@250 by the hhd, as in quality; labble N. Die ser b more; Soft Ysllow is bold at 26@270; Cru-bod, &c., 20@300. New leans Molasses #1 20@1 20; Syrup at #1 40@1 45. Coffee tious-The Government sgent, Mr. V. P. Armstrong has commenced the purchase of Hogs at 2c gross. About 300 Hogs were purchased to day at this rate, delivered. it is understood that in the country the price will be 11AT-Baled Timothy active at $226.23; at retail $27@39. cose from wagons at $25.

Linsand Oil—Hold at $1 40@t 15. Malr- 'ales 250 bushels at 42 50.
POTATORS-Peach blows and M calgan and other northra from store $16.450 per bbl, wi ha heavy st ck. Tue mmon kinds ars unsaleable. Transes-Command 90c@ 11. APPLIM-Sales at 13@5 per bbl, as la quality.

WHISEY-We bear of to sal A. Louisville Tobacco Macket. SATURDAY-Sales to day were 80 hh ts, as follows: 1 at 85; 11 at 90; 15 at 910; 3 at 911; 5 at 913; 4 at 913; 6 at 914; since she was finished at this place, has proved 5 at $15; 5 at $10; 4 at $17; 3 at $19; 6 at $1. 4 at $20; 2 at 031; 2 at 022; 1 at 023; 1 at 021 25; 1 at 025; 1 at 027 3 5; 1 at 035 25 1 at 036; 1 at 040, and 1 at 044 per 100 nounds

Sales for the week 389 hhds. Receipts for the week 76 1348.

SPECIE AND BANK NOTE LIST.
acving. Spilive. 1014 — 114 Peen', p'm 1014 — 114 Peen', p'm 1014 — 115 Peen', p'm 1014 Peen', p'm
Miscord Pastern
tnierior 149 cent dit New York 1 v cent dis Naw Horiand 1 v cent dis Joulisians 10000 v cent dis Unividad 10000 v cent dis Varyland 10000 v cent dis Planters' worth 99 - 50 - 10 - 10 - 10 - 10 - 10 - 10 - 10

TELEGRAPH MARKETS

NEW YORK, November 11-P M. Cotton firm and in moderate demand at $1.41@1.46 or midding nplands, Flour-State and Western, dull and drooping, $100 mees, $41@41 50 for new mees, cash and regular way, lusing $41 for cash, $38(23) 25 for prime, $40 for this ness, alse 1,000 bbis prime mese, at $30-0-40, and 1,000 bble new muse for January, on P. T. Bacf steady, Lard less active, and rather less doing, sales of 1,600 bbis at H VONYO.

Gold closed at the Evening Exchange at 249%. CISCIANATI, Nevember 12-P. M Plour quiet and usohanged-experime $9 25 for a and $9 for old; extra $9 4000 50. Wheat unchange

The Franklin Sanz of Kezincky sells

0 15 for extra State, $11(3)11 15 for raund hoop Oblo. and 612 for trade brands, market closing about 100 lower on common grades. Whisky heavy $1.735,01.74 for Wastern. Wheat opened dull and drooping, closed ratherm resteady $2.330.2.25 for Chicage 'spring, $2.25 $2 29 for Milwaukee club, $2 50 amber Michigan firm, for Western $1 64. Corn 20 40 better, $1.78 for mixed Western, in store, and $1 5001 28 do affect, Oats 20 better, 97e for Weslern aftoat, and 97@990 do do in store. Coffee inactive. Sugar duil, Muscovado 2 @ Ste. Petroleum firm, at the for stude, 73@ 73 for refined in bond, and %357e do free. Itops quiet, small sales, 30@35c. Pork opened firm and closed heavy at $30 for > Money steady gnd unchanged at 7 par cent. Sterling Gold without decided change, opening at 244, advance Government stocks firm. New York, November 13-10 p. M.

white $2.20. Corn and oats unchanged. Rye at 45. Whisky 61 70. Provisions quiet. Sales of preco meat at 12, 18 and 190 for should re and hams. Grootries un hanged. Gold 240.

exchange on Montreal, London and Paris.

T. Buchanan Read's Poem on Sheridau's Ride. [The people of Cincinnatl will be interested to see in print T. Buchanan Read's poem, read by Mr. Murdoch at his Pike's on the dey it was read here .- EDS. COM.] "To the Editor of the New York Tribune:

"Sin: The following magnificent lyric was written by Thomas Buchanan Read, to be recited by Mr. Murdoch at a complimentary festival given to the letter in Cincinnatl on Monday evening, October 31, in acknowledgment of his noble contributions for the aid of our sick and wounded soldiers. I am indebted to the poet for permission to give to the public through the Tribune a poem which deserves to renk with 'Young Lochinver' and Browning'e 'How They Brought the Good News from BAYARD TAYLOR. "New York, November 5, 1864."

SHERIDAN'S RIDE. Up from the South at break of day, Bringing to Winchester from dism Bringing to Winchester fresh dismay,
The afrighted air with a shudder bore,
Like a heraid in haste to the chieftain's do
The terrible gramble and rumble and rea
Telling the battle was on once more,
And Sheridan twenty miles away.

And wilder still those billows of war Thundemed along the horizon's bar, And ionder yet into Winchester rolled The roar of that red sea, uncontrolled, Making the blood of the l stener coid As he thought of the stake in that flory iray, And Sheridan twenty miles away.

But there is a road from Winchester town, But there is a road from which are town, A good, broad highway leading down; And there, through the flush of the morning A steed, as black as the steeds of night, Was seen to pass as with aggle flight—As if he knew the terrible need, He stretched away with his utmost speed; Hilli rose and fell—hut hie heart was gay, With Sheridan fifteen miles away.

Still sprung from those swift hoofs, thundering south.

The dust, like the smoke from the cannon's month, Or the trail of a comet, sweeping faster and faster. Foreboding to traitors the doom of disaster: The heart of the steed and the heart of the master Were beating like prisoners secanting their walls, Impattent to be where the battle-field calls; Every nerve of the charger was strained to full play. with Sheridan only ten miles sway.

Under his spurning feet, the road Like an arrowy Aipine river flowed, And the landscape sped away behind, Like an ocean flying before the wind; And the steed, tike a bark fed with farr Swept on, with his wild.eyes full of fre But, io i he te nearing his heart's desire He is somfling the smoke of the roaring with Sheridan only five miles away.

The first that the General saw were the groups Of atragglers, and then the retreating troops; -What was done-what to do-a glance told him both,

Then striking his spurs with a terrible oath,
He dashed down the line 'mid a storm of huzzas,
And the wave of retreat checked the course there because
The eight of the master compelled it to panee.
With foam and with dust the black charger wa

gray; By the flash of his eye, and his red nostrils' play, He seemed to the whole great army to say; "I have brought you Sheridan all the way From Winchester down to save the day?"

Hnrah, hnrah for Sheridan i Hnrah, hnrah for Sheridan i And when their statues are placed on high, Under the dome of the Union eky, The American soldier's Temple of Fame, There with the glorions General's name Be it said in tetter both bold and bright: "Here is the steed that saved the day Brastrying Sheridan into the fight. By carrying Sheridan into the fight, From Winchester—twenty miles away:"

(From the Boston Leader.) THE SOLDIER'S DOG.

fie starts from the hearth with a low, sad whine,
As the night-wind rattles the casement frame.
And looks at me with eyes that shine
As if through tears when I speak your name.
Yonder your empty chair by the wali
Stands, half in the shadow and half in the light,
And the old clock ticks in the slient hall
Like a shuddering pulse of the dreary night.

A click of the latch at the garden gate. Some sound like steps on the upper floors. In the still iong hours when we sit and walt— Perhaps for your face at the open doors— And sigh at last as the flex tree Shakes on the pane, and the fancy flee;
Then he lays his shargy head down on my knee
And tooks at me still with those wistful eyes.

Does not a thought of the summers dead E'er hannt him, following mule and sin

Does not a thought of the summers dead
E'er hant him, following mute and slow Down the dim oid pathe we need to tread
In the purple mornings of long ago?
Some long apent which in the bearded grain,
Some lightsome carol on hedge or thorn,
Lost echoes caught from the reuper's strain
Among the laurele and shining corn?

Among the latters and suring corn.

He listens, I think, for your footsteps still,
In the depths of the woodlands, gray and old,
Where the comfortiess storms go sobbing at will
And the maples are casting their tawns y gold—
For the lightsome call that he used to hear
Through the sharp, dead rustice of leaf and spray
But the old ways now are ionely and ecre,
And the roar of the cannon is far away. Far, far away, old Rover and we

Far, far away, old Rover and we Must wait at the saadowy hearth alone,
Hanned for aye by some tone of giee,
Some sleepless shoot of the glad daye gone.
Come close to my side—there; your rough paws so
And your brown head here—let the fiex-icaves
Whirl on the pane—ah, we all must know
That the heart that loves is the heart that grieves

Away, where the bellowing batteries' light Reddens the dark of the Southern sky, Reddens the dark of the Southern sky, He has hid him down on the tarf to-hight, Thinking, Rover, of you and I. Grim with the smoke of the trench, or worn With the toil of the battle, yet seeing there The lights of home through the distance burn And the faces that watch by his empty chair

Ah, well the hours grow dark and late:
There will come no step on the stleet floors,
No hand to-night at the garden gate,
No smilling face at the open doors.
The shadows deepen along the wail,
But one star shines through the failing rain,
They trust the best who have staked their all—
Lie down, old friend, at my feet again.

AT DAYBREAK.

O do not wake, for so thon look'st most true, The veined lids have velled thy glances wild, And thy pale cheeks have caught the rosy hue Sleep gives a little child. Sleep gives a little child. Blight, and warm breath of spring, sweet food, and murderon's banc,

Oh, my lost fove! when shall we meet again?
Never again shall foot of mine
Tread within a home of thine;
Never again shall smile of thine
Bress or blast a house of mine.

Porgive me, sweet one, that I cannot bear The terrible fate thon whiled'st. Bilind despair, Making a hell of what was once my heart, Drives me before her, and so, sweet, we part. And yet I thank thee for those hitter hileses. That once thon didst bestow—thy cruei kisses; And for the passionate words of love once spoken; And blees thee, blees thee, blees thee, with the heart thou'st broken! heart thou'st broken!
Oh, little Agatha, dark to me is the light
That bids me leave thee! So, the daws
That gradges wretched souls these shronding hou of night,

And brings the sunshine back to souls at case,
Wake shiveringly, and shivering sigh the trees
One kiss, O child! one more! now sleep, for I

THE QUESTION OF THE WOMEN.-Women are very haughty creatures—very resentful of any supposed slight—very aggressive, besides, if they imagine the time for attack favorable. Will they sit down patiently as makere of pili boxes and artificial flowere? Will they be satisfied with their small gains and smaller consideration? there not be ambitious spirits among them who will ask, What do you mean to offer Wo are of a class who neither care to books nor draw patterns. Wo are bind books nor draw patterns. We are your equals-if we were not distinctively modest, we might say something more than your equals-in acquirement and informa-We have our smattering of physical-science humbug, as you have; we are read up in theological disputation, and are as ready as you to stand by Moses against Colenso; in modern languages we are more than your match.

[From the Waverly Magazine.] A COINCIDENCE, WHAT BECAME OF IT.

SY FRED. B. MARION.

The rain dripped down drearily. She had known in her elmpla country home, The brown country roads were heavy with mud, the gutters were overflowing, and the boughs of the elm trees awang to and fro last Ootober days she sat alone in the lux-slowly, under the weight of chill water. The fall rain dripped down drearily There was a meaning wind astir, and the Opera-house testimonial on the Sist of Oorose-vines about the porch of Olive Hudthe book she held upon her lep. Of course teber. It was suggested to Mr. Read by a son's home were shedding their russet leaves she was thinking of Richard Brown—wonpicture in Harper's Weekly, and written and tossing their bare branches as if in dering if he had received her letter—hoping on the day it was read here.—EDS. COM.] tress abroad, and all the gloom of wind and weather were reflected in Olive Hudwetching absently the falling rein, and the centracted lines about her beautiful month told of eadness within and without.

parting, and unspeakable sorrow and pain dragging through the long space of a year. "I won

She had grown up practical, high-minded, the door. She sprang to her feet—her true-hearted, and with certain possibilities of beauty. A yeer before there had been a deep dimple and a rose-flush upon the cheek that was now too thin for dimples door. Then came the sound of a man's and very pale. And in a year the large, voicedark eyes had lost their bright light. On-ly the mouth retained its sweetness of expression, and the forhead its calm, smooth breadth, and these cherms were Olive Hudson's striking characteristics. Her eyebrows were well merked, giving her face much of its cleer character, and the heavy braids of her dark hair had a marvelous glossed richness; but yet the face pressed the name."
against the cold pane of the farm-house window would more likely have been colled is her house."

plain than pretty.

"Oh!" murmured the girl, pressing her hand to her licert, "if he could only know!"
Only the sharp stroke of the rain drops against the window answered her moan. The canary in the cage above her head was startled by the sudden gust and gave a sharp cry and a flutter. Olive looked up.

"Well, lan't a Miss Pinkey expected here?"
There came a long pauso of perplexity. Evidently the gentleman was distressed, perplexed, and disappointed. Olive stood istening attentively, just within the parlor door. Sald the gentleman, at last:

"I had a note from Miss Pinkey expected here?"
There came a long pauso of perplexity. Evidently the gentleman was distressed, perplexed, and disappointed. Olive stood istening attentively, just within the parlor door. Sald the gentleman, at last:

"I had a note from Miss Pinkey expected here?"
There came a long pauso of perplexity. Evidently the gentleman was distressed, perplexed, and disappointed. Olive stood istening attentively, just within the parlor of the parlor door. Sald the gentleman was distressed, perplexed, and disappointed. Olive stood istening attentively, just within the parlor door. Sald the gentleman, at last:

"I had a note from Miss Pinkey expected here?"

She put her finger between the wires of here." the cage, and the little creature sprang to peck it, tugging at it with all his slight strength until his mistress smiled faintly through her tears.

'Silly pet! are you hungry?" bird and commenced walking the floor. "If I could see Dick for a moment—only do. Then, isn't it my fault that we quar-reled? I saw where the mistake ley, but last. was so proud! end he thought me unjust, and eo-She sank in a cheir, covered her face with her hands, and wept bitterly.

It was late in the afternoon, and the room began to fill with a gray gloom. The tinkle of a cow-bell sounded up the road as the cattic came slowly home from the certainly written by a friend of mine, Miss had soaked the roads. The noise startled the tell, slight, dark-eyed girl who claim secretly; not one of the manny who hed Olive could not but smile in spite of her surrounded the girl from her childhood, disappointment and in the midst of her beand who sat delly with her at the some wilderment.

board, dreamed that she had a grief or care "It can't evond the moment.

and her mother nodded over her knitting, flashed across her mind. bije her father went quite asieen over his Bible, Olive took a candle and stole up am. to her own little room. Her cheek was flushed, her eyes had something of their old, brilliant light, and her hand trembled as she sat down at the table and commenced to write. This was her letter:

"Dear Dick:—My heart aches so that I

Next week I go to Brooklyn, for a visit to Aunt Elsie. Will you come there, No. 40, S—— etreet, and see your OLIVE?"

She did not know the special address, eo she

OLIVE?"

She did not know the special address, eo she wrote upon the envelop eimply "Richard Brown, New York," sealed it with her own little Scotch motto-seal of "Dinna forget," end leid it by, with a sigh of relief, for mailing on the morrow.

— at lit, black-eyed ferlow—en' and art. Brown etopped laughing, for the sudden crimeon of Olive's face revealed the whole story.

"Miss lindson," he ssid, archly, for he was very fond of a quiet jest, "it really

The law-office of Brown & Burleigh was it was such a sensible, pleasant face, and very quiet. The book-keeper was at his desk, the two copying-clerks were et theire, the gentleman, that Olive, finding that Mr.

Brown's intensely occupied mind was in-ent upon some law case. Not so. Instead, "I really must see him immediately."
"Must you, indeed? Is it possible that Brown's intensely occupied mind was in-tent upon some law case. Not so. Instead, he was saying over and over to himself, "I you are in love with such a very unreasonwish I could eee Olive," and he was actuel-

Very unpractical of Lawyer Brown, but very unpractical of Lawyer Brown, but wery natural, thus to stand dreaming of a little, rosy-cheeked, blue-eyed damsel—far for a few days, I will stake my reputation for a few days, I will stake my reputation

Ail at once there came a sturdy tread upon the stairs, and in a moment a penny-post-man entered and deposited upon Mr. Brown's afternoon mail.

He looked at every one of the letters before opening any, and finally examined one

"A lady'e hend—mailed at C--. Why, who in the world-" lie tore it open. "It can't be Olive's," he thought. "The Nassan street he ran nearly against a young man who was walking nearly as fast as himself.

"Mr. Brown."
"Mr. Brown."

"i beg your pardon."

"Not at all. I beg yours."
"Thank you. A fine day."
"Very fine."
The other Mr. Brewn had black eyes in the world, though she never complained at the absonce of it. But ne hour which she spent in her annt's beautiful parlors or at the theaters, lecture-rooms, or operaued by her as were some little moments she had known in her elmpla country home urions front-parler, looking absently out at the windows and then idly at the plates of that he would come-really waiting and listening for his coming. Twice she had been startled end then disappointed by the son's face. lier pale check pressed against ringing of the door-bell, that afternoon, the window-paine, her heavy, dark eyes yet still she sat with feverish cheeks and throbbing heart, listening for another sum-

She had something in her lap besides "A year to-day," mnrmured the girl, owal, velvet minimum ooking down the length of the derk road.

"A year to-day," mnrmured the girl, the book—a small, oval, velvet minimum occurs. Once again for many times she opened it, and looked earnestly at the face opened it, and looked earnestly at the face It was the old story of a lover's querrel. within-a frank, prond face, with irregular misnaderstanding, recriminations, a features, very soft black eyes, and cluster-

"I wonder if Dick has changed any in a Olive lindson was a sweet, greve giri- yeer," she said to herself. Suddealy there came a quick, sharp ring

> "Is Miss Pinkey in?" "There's no one of thet name lives here, r," replied the servant, respectfully.

'Inn't Miss Pinkey stopping here?' "No. gir. "Isn't this No. 40?"

" It is, sir." "Isn't it Mrs. Elsie-or, ah, I den't know "Mrs. Elsie Grant lives here, sir. This

"Well, lan't a Miss Pinkey expected the bail.

"There is probably come mistake, eir. But the momentary diversion passed.

The smile died. The girl turned from the bird and commenced walking the floor.

she commenced to say, when her glance fell upon the note, which he held in his hand. It was certainly her very owa. Her heart gove a wild throb. for a moment," she murmured, "I am sure her eyes over the visitor from head to foot, we should somehow get at each other's to see if by any means she could trace a hearts and be reconciled. I went him so! resemblance between a grave, professional and I am sure that he needs mo. No one gentleman of forty and a certain quickever loved him but me. I think no one in motioned, black-eyed young man of her acthe world esn ever understand him as I quaintance. Never were two more unlike. 'Will you come in, sir?" she said at > Mr. Brown followed Olive into the luxurious pariors. "There is some strange mistake, sir.

she said, facing him as soon as he fields, where the grass had grown scarce Olive Finkney, and malled at Corinth," and sere—and where, since noon, the rain and Mr. Brown looked almost wildly at her from her abandon of grief. She rose to be the originator of the epistle he beto her feet, glanced through the window to the barn, where her father was finishing lady-love. Indeed, thoughts of intrigue his day's work, then turned quickly to and conspiracy flashed upon him as he rose bathe her face and serve supper.

Like many another, Olive bore her grief madam."

to his feet, repeating, "You are mistaken, madam."

"It can't be a hoax, sir, for I certainly wrote the note; but how the mistake hap- pain. When the dey's work was quite finished, pened-Your name, sir ?" as the thought connot bear it. It is grieving me to death to have this coldness between us. I was haif to blame, Dick, and I sek you first to eyed girl, whose note he returned with a forgive me—forgive me and come to me emiling bow and an involuntary compli-

The next day the letter was duly mailed. isn't possible that you have quarreled with such a nice young fellow as that?"

Mr. Brown stood gazing thoughtfully from brown knew Dick quite well, was now the window, end Mr. Burleigh was in led into telling the whole story of the quar-able fellow, Mies Olivs?" "I was half to blame, Mr. Brown."

"Oh! woman! woman!" sighed the gentleman; "what angels you are—some-times!"

off, she was—that autumn day, so cool and suited to the mental labor of his profession. But Lawyer Brown's thoughte would not stay in his office in New York, but went wandering across the open country and through the harvest-fields of a country estate.

All at once there came a sturdy tread upon without a lady, sat Dick Brown listening absently to the music, and looking so grave desk a number of letters fresh from the and pale that Olivo whispered to her companion-

"Call him-motion to him, please. I am oure he will forgivo me, and we shall be friends."

careless little witch don't write ac well as this, I'll be bound. Why, it is hers!
Signed Olive, as sure as fate."

Ile perusod it carefully and smiled. He was a grave man of forty, and even his smile was a little smile.

quickly, and in walked Mr. Dick Brown, having a mien of subdued indignation and hateur, He went directly to the business of inquiring Olive's address. Mr. Brown gave it quite readily and courteously, only net for an instant did she dream that sha see you, Mr. Brown."

"Impertinence!" muttered Dick. "How

A SISTER'S SACRIFICE.

"Oh, dear me, Marie, are you not tired of this work, work, day after day, and no change?"

These words were spoken by a very prety girl, sitting in a most comfortable littl parlor, one side of which was formed of a wide screen lined with green silk, which divided it from another portion of the room fitted up as a jawelry store.

Maria and Jeanne were the daughters o Pierre Galoubet, a diamond jewsler, re-nowned more for his taste and honesty than for his fortune or hlaluxury. He wes a widower, with two daughters.

Marie and Jeanna were the very idols of his heart. Pierre had been a soldier in his youth, liks most Frenchmen, and during his absence in Algiers his wife died. When he came back a kind neighbor took him to her cottags and, leading him to a cradle, showed him two little infants sleeping side by sids on the same pillow. Pisrre knew that in his absence a child had been born to him, but he had received no communicaion from home for mare then a year before his return. lie therefore turned from the hildren to his neighbor with a look of in-

"Are they both my children?" said he. "Why, no," replied Jaquinette. "There's whole history about them, and, Pierrs, as you are a clever man, and have traveled ail over the world, perhaps you will be able I must become his wife. I cannot; so now fatten for market. to settle a point that has puzzied us ever since the death of your wife.

"What is it?" "Why, which of these two is your daugh-

"Which? Why, whose is the other? "Oh! one day, about a month efter the pirth of your child, when your wife opened the door one morning, she found on the threshold one of these infente. She knew which it was, but you know poor Mme Pierre died suddenly, and she naver had time to tell me which daughter was yours. Again Pierre leaned over the bahies, and as they opened their oyes and smiled on hlm, l'ierre felt as if both wera appealing to his heart, both asking his pretection.

From that hour Pierre Galonbet called both children his, and Marls and Jeanne, as he christened tham (for they had no name until his return), became the idols of When they were grown up Marie and Jeanne, who both adored their father, helped him in his business.

Marie kept tha books, and Joanne, hed a great talent for drewing, which had been cultivated, made the drawings and lesigns for the settings of the diamonds. They were now both eighteen; at least, knowing the age of one, Pierre Lad always put them down es the same ego. Their father's strict honesty had prevented his making a fortune, bu', thenks to the menagement of Jeanne, they were in easy and should have worn a ducal coronet.

omfortable circumstances. Of late a cloud, however, hed risen on the honsehold so full of the sanshine of affection. Jeanns had grown pensive, end even looked pale end thin, receiving her father's caresees with indifference, and sitting for hours, peneil in hand, without drawing a stroke. Now, on this evening, the sisters were alone togethe Jeenne had pushed the paper from her with disgust, and, throwing down her peneil, had declared her dissatisfaction to her sister. "Jeanne," said Marie, looking up, "yo have never felt dissetisfaction before: but you are nnhappy, and you will always be so antil von confide what troubles von to von best friends, your father and your sister. "Not to my father-I dare not; but to you Jeenne. Ohi sister, I em so wretched!

"Wretched?—why, what has happened?"
'Marie," said Jeanne, sitting down on a ool ot her feet, "listen, but do not look on me. Some months ago, you remember, I come home on Sunday morning from church, where I had gone with our servant, with a sprained ankie.

Well, I had fallen-slipped off the marble steps of the church, end fainted from the Wall, as I lay there and the crowd it." began to gather around me, a gentleman grace, it was a great pity that grace had advanced; and, putting aside crowded over me, lifted me no ln his arms. Preceded by his servants, who had made way for him, he carried me to his carriaga, and, placing ms in it, asked our servant our address and drove me home.

ner so fascinating as to heve been oble to dispense with either, Marie. The next time went out I mst him. I have often sesn him eince; he loves me-I love him." "Well, if he is an honest man, true and sincere in his love, why should you be un-

"He was young, handsome, and in man-

You know your father will con-

"He is the Duc Octave de Blossac." "The Duc de Blossac, Jeanne?

"But not an honest men, or he would never have dared to speak to you of lova.' "He is an honest man, for when he epoke to me of love he told me that he could not marry me, but ha offered to devote hie life to me; he offered never to marry. "But he did not offer to marry you?"

"You know that was impossible. are parted, I suppose, forever, and that is why I am wretched."
"Jeanne," said Marie, "if he loved you

I will not talk thus to you, you are blinded by leve—I will teil you to think of our father, whose only hope we both are, whose only lovs wa both are."

why, when you are going to be here slater begins to sing and get good, and she gives me cake end pie, end anything I want; and she sings so swestly when you Yes, my father, my own dear father.

but his lova cannot be the only lova of my life. At this moment the door opened and Pierre himself entered the room. His daughters rose, and both rushed up to him, throwing their orms around him.

"My dearest father, you look sed; tell me what is the matter with you""

"Ah? girls, girls, my own two children, you ere both my children, are you not?" "Something has happened that I felt would happen one of these days. It is when strangers are there, e right to the leve of one of you.

"Which of us, father, is not your child?"

"Here, precisely, is the puzzle; we cannot tell, but I cannot give up either of you, for I love one as well as the other."

ed, and the minister came down from his glass.

ed, and the minister came down from his proclamation standard said "Now I want all who love the Lord to come forward and be level sinke by the feeding of the roots, and not want to leave you; we can love no other father but you.

saive, was a fittle smile.

"Foolish little sensitive puss!" he solilsquized. "To think of being grieved about small will of it again in the world. What strange the more are! See her at Brookselfer
lyn? of course. I did not know she had a small with the selfer is a man in the house who had a small with the selfer is a man in the house who is a lyn? of course. I did not know she had
a small with the selfer is a man in the house who is a lyn? of course. I did not know she had
a small with the selfer is a man in the house who is a lyn? of course. I did not know she had
a small with the selfer is a man in the house who is a lyn? of course. I did not know she had
a small with the selfer is a man in the house who is a lyn? of course. I did not know she had
a small with the selfer is a man in the house who is a lyn? of course. I did not know she had
a small with the selfer is a man in the house who is a lyn? of course. I did not know she had
a small with the selfer is a man in the house who is a lyn? of course. I did not know she had
a small with the selfer is a man in the house who is a lyn? of course. I did not know she had
a small with the selfer is a man in the house who is a lyn? of course. I did not know she had
a small with the selfer is a man in the house who is a lyn? of course. I did not know she had
a small with the selfer is a man in the house who is a lyn? of course. I did not know she had
a small with the selfer is a man in the house who is a lyn? of course. I did not know she had
a small with the selfer is a man in the house who is a lyn? of course. I did not know she had looked by the the state with the solit which will be selfer in the selfer in the selfer is a man in the house who is a lyn? of course. I did not know she had looked
by the the solit with the solit who is solit when the solit who is solit w

the advantage he set before her would have removed the obstacles which separated her from Octave, but sha only sighed deeply saying, as Dick turned to gocould ever lay claim to all this brilliant fortune; but Marie, taking her father's hend, calmly asked him if her father was anxionaly pacing the floor.

"Fether," said Marie, "Joanne is better;
she will sleep soon, and then all will be right. Father, have you ever had a favorlte botween us?"

Jeanna is suffering and seems unhappy, why darling, I think I love her-"Not better than your Marie—that cen never be. But would you be content to see Jeanns happy?"

"At any cost, "Tell me the sign by which this lady says she can recognize her granddaughter." "A violet mark imprinted in the way in which sailors mark their arms, put over the heart." "Then," said Marie, "you must love me Jeanne is Ducheese de Blossao. "To lose one of you is terrible, my dar-you think that will console her?" "I do, though she will never forget ns."

That night Marie knelt by her Jeanne's edside; the door wes locked end the sisters it and die in the winter. The earlier grass were alone.

ear of thie sacrifice. What right have I to deprive you-submit." Still Jeanne resisted; but Marie was firm, will eat everything clean. Give young or and, drawing aside the night drass with a store pigs the range of the crohard. Keep Still Jeanne resisted; but Marie was firm, firm end light hand, she pricked the shape logs clean, end to fatter rapidly they of a violet just over her sister's heart. Then should not be allowed to roam much or rubbing it with gunpowder, she made the squeal for the food. mark indelible.

bly my poor mother made. But I love Pierre, who has been to us a father. I have no tasts for splendor. Be happy, my own sister, and do not forget ns."

So Jeanne, in great state, was recognized great pomp and ceremony to the Due de ripen. Most verieties keep best in sand or Bloasac.

sister drive away in her brilliant equipage; son. These should have been stopped when with a smile sha looked up into her father's about six feet high. Remove all other face, and he, wiping a tear from hie sye, pressed her to his hearf; neither then, nor till the day of his death, ever knowing that the child who made his home so happy, who leved him so faithfully, a woman fu of sense, simplicity and sensibility, was the hairess of the house of Vaibourg, and Effect of Religion on Character. Religion developes, but it does not ereats faculties. If a sinner is a confirmed tailor, he will not turn poet when he becomes a saint. ile may become a better tailor, but hs will be a tailor still. If he is a shoemaker by nature, he will not be a sculptor by grace. If he hes been witty, he will not suddenly discover a capacity for dullness; and if he has been stupid, he will not immediately astonish you with his brilliancy If he was a sociable man before his conver sion, he will be sociable after it; and if he was reserved before, reserved he will coninne. There may be sxceptions, but this s the rule. It follows, then, that the man who is most fluent and ready in exhortion and prayer is not necessarily the man who lives nearest to God. lie may be, but we cannot from such facts infer that he is. I once heard of a woman whose Lares and Penates were disorder and uncleanliness; whose husband and children were squalid and repulsive from sheer neglect; but who descanted with unctnons fervor on rsligione topics, and when asked by a modest and dmiring matron how it was that she could do this, "It's grace," she replied compia-cently-"it's grace that snables me to do One can but think that if it were those wha not taken another turn, act her to mending her family's clothes and making their home grace, but something quita different. Of course I do not mean to say that a clean floor in your house is more important than a soul saved in your neighbor'e; but Christ, whether his favor ie sought for yourcelf or others, is to be sought in the way of dutynever out of it; and as it is a wife's unquesionable duty to attend to the affairs of her honsehold, she cannot systematically negleet that duty without incurring grave suspicions as to her christian character. [Geil Hamilton.

A young man who was paying special the tables thus made up nave the tables thus made up nave the widest interest:

A lowing incident during one of his visits:

The wheat-crop for this year in round numbers is 101.000,000 bushels, 10,000,000 numbers is 101.000,000 less than the part of the corn-crop is 531,the lady's appearance, he entertained himself as best he might for some time and was becoming very weary, when a little girl about five year previous. The corn-crop is 531, 000,000 bushels, 78,000,000 more than fer five years old slipped in end began to con-last year and 550,000,000 less than 1862.

verse with him: are coming to our house."

"Why, when you are going to be here gives me cake end pie, end anything I same as in 1862, and 3,000,000 more than rule. Any rudeness which would violate want; and sha sings so swestly when you 1863. Potatoes, 90,000,000, being 4,000,000 the written law of good breeling is carewant; and sha sings so swestly when you are here, and when I speak to her shs smiles so placeantly. I wish you would stay here all the while, then I would have a good time. But when you go off, sister e good time. But when you go off, sister is not good. She gets mad, and if I ask her for anything she slaps and bangs me about." This was a poser to the young man. 'Fools and children tell the truth," queted quoted he, and taking his hat he left end returned no more. Monal.-Parents wishing their illnatured daughtere married, should keep their smaller children out of the parler

A RICH STORY .- The following we clip sults:

the right to the leve of one of you."

"Ah! father, what do you mean?"

"You know your own history—you know old bill Lowe?

"We have never liked to think of it."

"Well, children, this evening I had an appointment, of which I teld you nothing, so much did I dread it. It was with an emimuch did I dread it. It was with an "Not at all. He deserves twenty-four hours punishment, my dear. Hs's a very unreasonable, obstinate fellow, and I am going to punish him a littla. Just be patient, and you shall kiss him to-morrow much did I dread it. It was with an emi-fellers, Bill loves to see the bottom of his tumbler at all times. Well, once there lower and is almost, but not quite, in commette was a Methodist revival in town. Bill was there—and a little too full of his kind of spirit to hold much of the other kind. But he sat still. At last the sermon was ond-small lump of charcoal at the bottom of the he sat still. At last the sermon was ond- small lump of charcoal at the bottom of the

Just then old Bill arose, hitched up his trowsers, and, in a peculiar half-sober voice, sang out:

9. The more light and air given from the trowsers, and, in a peculiar half-sober voice, will be the leaves and spike, and the brighter the colors of the flowers.—[W. I have often been told that the best was the ilvacinth. the Lord, or any other man, who haint no l'aul's Lecture on the Hyacinth. more friende then he 'pears to 'ave in Wingan Covening - Don't force this section."

THINK OF IT .- There are 40,000 pricon-

Colesso, in modern languages we are more than your match.

What here you to offer us if we are to proof, or too saything else, to market of Beigraviar by in the marriage-market of Beigraviar by in the marri ward Marie slowly entered the room, where AGRICULTURAL AND DOMESTIC.

HINTS FOR THE DAY .- Butter. Put down weil for winter and market, teke great care, in arder to realize high prices.
Cuttle. Keep them comfortable end well food, to make the most butter possible, for butter will be high. Cisterns often efford the best source of cious drink, weter for the stock in winter. If possible have them underground end et an elevetion ebove the stable floor. Cement cisterns made by plastering directly on hard earth ere excellent.

Eggs. If eggs cannot be marked fresh and weil, pack them for winter feed, dipping the fresh aggs in melted tallow and packing them in dry chaff or sawdast, the ends up, st, father, for I em your child, and end in boxes so that they may be inverted

Grass. Do not out the eftermath where Grass. ings; but Jeanne will be a great lady; do land has suffered from drouth. Bare spots may be manured, searified with a harrow, land is manured in the fall, the better it

"Mariel" exclaimed Jeanne, "I cannot works among the roots. Poultry may be allowed considerable libto deprive you—"
"Of nothing, my sister. You love the Duke; I do not. If I claim the inheritance long to feed regularly with some grain to Swine. Feed with regularity so that they Weeds. Burn ail that have gone to seed, "Now, Jenune," said she, "that is exactly and add the rest to a compost heap, quickliks the one I have on me-the one proba- ened with lime, horse dung, caster pemace as the heiress of Mmo. de Valbourg, and a the better the price.

few days afterward was married with Seeds. Collect seeds of trees as fast as they Blossac.

For a few days she had hesitated, then she had detsrmined not to accept her sister's sacrifice; but she loved, and the temptstion was too strong; the inheritance she could have renounced, not Octave; so forever she buried her secret in her bosom.

Bluckberries. After the fruit is gathered, ent out the old cases. Allow two, or at the county for most secret to the county out for not seen the county out for not seen the county of the county out for not seen the county out for not seen the county of the county Without one pang dld Marie watch her most three, canes to grow out for next sea-> fully trained, tisd up and interais pinched cept storing wine cellars and massing forout the previous season. At pruning time, tunes for spendthrift heirs. Respectable say from November to the close of February, well-to-do Grecians shook their heads over these ere cut back four to six feet or more Leonidas end his three hundred when they in length, according to the size and strength went down to Thermopylee. Respectable of the canes; these remain tied to the stakes in spring until the shoots have made a scouted the dream of Columbus. Respectagrowth of eight or ten inches, which will ble German folks attempted to dissuade usually be about the first of June, when Luther from appearing before Charles and a trench for each cane is dug, say six inches the Princes and electors of the empire, deep; the canes are then laid down and Nature makes us vagabonds—the world heid in piece by pegs, or weighed down by stones. From 3 to 5 shoots from each cans ere saved to form the new plants, all the in> layers. Inexperienced persons are apt to overtax the sun. their vince by growing too many plants A little mere air and light should be let from the layers, and in allowing the vines in upon life. I should think the world has to mature fruit. The plants propegated stood long enough under the drill of Adju-from a single root should be limited eccording to its age and strength, and all the is weariaome, and Fashion is an awful mar-biossoms should be picked off, no fruit being allowed to ripen. Excessive propagation and fruiting at the same time would cannot square his toss to the most approved soon render the parent plant weak, and pattern, or who appears upon parade finally of but little value either for propa-gation or for fruit. Good cultivetion is es- floiently pipe-clayed. It is killing work. parent plant. By fall these plants will be well rooted, and may be dug up and seperated at any time after the leaves have fallen. H. P. B. fallen. [Moore's Rural New Yorker.

AGBICULTURAL STATISTICS .- The Department of Agriculture is enabled, by means of very full reports from its correspondents almost every county in the loyal States, to make up on approximate statement of the crops for this year, which will go far toward enabling farmers to estimate from this supply the probable price of their pro-sy is a matter of mere conventional ar-

000,000 bushels, 78,000,000 more than fer your open hand, and languidly withdrawn, last year and 550,000,000 less than 1862. Rye is 20,000,000, being 100,000 less than becomes oblivious of your existence in the last year and 200,000 less than the year. recoming to our house."

Itye is 20,000,000, using southen the year last year end 200,000 less than the year most polished manner possible.

There can be nothing more before. Barely, 11,000,000, being half a 8,000,000 tuns, being 2,000,000 lees than which quite upsets our conception of poeach of the two preceding years. There litenese.

Etiquette, it strikes us, is, to a greater ber of fatting hoge of nearly three per cent. from last year. The flax-eeed crop is from to 4 per cent. larger than last year.

WINTER COVERING .- Don't forget to cover the tender plants ere the winter sets in in earnesst. They may be covered with either soil or old litter of any kind. Roses and similar plants, with a hard wood, where lone were reported and in others 125 gallons. The quality has been good. Prairie Farmer, 5th inst.

Good Cider .- Mr. Hillsboro said to the Parmers' Club of the American Institute "Yes; the one who was sick when you fed; buy beeves for fattening if the market that the best barrel of oider that he had were children I always loved best; now that favore. Give cowe milk and butter-forming ever seen had a handful of alum put into it in November. it did not remain sweet, but the next su mer it was a most deli-

FLAX IN IRELAND -lt is estimated that the flax-crop of Ireland is worth about $5,-000,000 the present year.

A Discourse on Vagabonds.

The fresh, rough, heathery parts of human acture, where the air is freshest, and where the linnets sing, is getting encroached upon by cultivated fields. Every one is making himself or herself useful Every one is producing something. Everybody is clever. Everybody is a philanthropist. I don't like it. I love a little eccentricity. I respect honest prejudices. Ladmire foolish enthusiasm in a young head better than a wiso cepticism. It is high time, it seems to me, that a moral game law were passed, for the preservation of the wild and vagrent feelngs of human nature. Ah, me! ahat a world this was to live in two or three conturies ago, when it was getting itself discovered - when the sunset gave up America. Then were the Arabian Knights commonplace, enchantmente a matter of course, and romance the most extraordinary thing in the world. was courting Nature—now he has married her! Yet, for all that time has brought and taken away, I am glad to know that the vagabond sleeps in our blood and awakes now and then.

Overlay nature as you please, here and there some bit of rock or mound of aboriginal soll will creep out, with the wild flowers growing upon it sweetening the air. lenius la a vagabond. Art is a vagabond. interprise le a vagabond. The first fine lay in spring awakes the gipsy in the blood of the English workman, and inconthe English gentlemen, lapped in the most uxnrious civilization, and with the thousand powers and resources of wealth at his command, descends oftentimes a fierce un-rest, a Bedouin-like horror of cities and the of the money-changer, and in the flory dust rises in the track of his desert steed, or in the six-months' polar midnight he hears the big wave dashing on the icy shore. shoots, unless needed for new plantations. its present shape. Respectable people swarm in the track of the vagabond LATERING GRAPE VINES .-- From 2 to 4 rooks in the track of the plowshare. Reanes are grown for the purpose and care- spectable people do little in the world, exermediate shoots ere broken off, the sweet-blooded and liberal nature blossomed trenches are left open for ten days or two into all the fine generosities as naturally weeks, when they are haif filled up, and as an apple bough into pink blossoms and after two or three weeks they are entirely odors. It would be better if we could have, filled and the plants staked and tied up, and along with our modern enlightenment, our each treated the seme as a regular standard-nigher tastes and purer habits, e greater in-vine, that is, laternals pinched out, &c. If dividuality of thought and manner; better the object is to continue the propegation, that every man should be allowed to grow a sufficient number of cames are allowed in his own way, so long as he does not into start from the old root for the next year's fringe on the rights of his neighbor, or insolently thrust himsel? between him and A little mere air and light should be let > (Essays by Alexander Smith. Courresy .- Lord Chesterfield wrote a series of letters in which he prescribed a code of rules by which politeneness is in> culcated as an art. His lordship left out of view that which is the only true basis of politeness-good feeling. igid. There is an iciness about the manner formed by the square and compass of a ode, which freezes intercourse and repels any advance towards intimacy duce. The following condensed footings of the tables thus made up have, therefore, the widest interest:

the widest interest: seas of ice. When one is introduced to a stranger with whom a f rther acquaintance million less than the year before. Oats, 177,000,000, being a half a million more than last year, and 6,000,000 more than terloper is resented by a particular "set." 1862. Bnokwheat, 19,000,000, being the The expulsion is conflucted according to extent than is imagined, destructive of good feeling. We have known some men, whose sense of the decorous has been scandulized IN GLASSES.—These rules may be learnt in 5 minutes, and, if followed, will, I am persuaded, be attended with satisfactors. ing the sanctity of the fire side and run-ning his confiling friend through the body by way of maintaining his rights and char-> structor in good manners. Genuine cour tesey derives its charm from that kindliness of feeling which is c neiderate to sensitiveness and exhibits pleasure at the enjoyment which it confers It melts the cial amenities, an lis all unself b, generous

"We both love yeu as our father; we do twant to leave you; we can love no ther father but you."

No one moved. In a minute he repeated: "Brethren and einners, I want all who love the Lord, or wish to love Him, to place where light is excluded, there to remain for about 6 weeks; the roote feed it. A FU REMARKS BY JOSH PILLINGS - Mor-think in many sustanzes, I shud prefer the tail holt.'